to Resist Bolsheviki; Two Warships Are Blown Up.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, March 18.—The Russian Soviet Government in continuing by wireless today the capture of Kronstadt by Bolsheviki troops, says M. Kusunin, soviet commissar of the Baltic fleet, and M. Vassili, chairman of the Kronstadt soviet, who were arrested at the beginning of the rising, were released by the Bolsheviki on their entry into Kronstadt. M. Kusunin participated in the final liquidation of the rising, the wireless adds.

By the Associated Press.
HELSINKI, Finland, March 18.—The Russian Soviet Government has announced that it has made the Revolutionary Committee of Kronstadt, which has arrived in Finland accompanied by 800 soldiers.

Before retreating from Kronstadt the revolutionists blew up the warships Petropavlovsk and Sebastopol. Gen. Koylovski, leader of the revolutionists, has also arrived in Finland.

Bolsheviki Launched Heavy Attack Against Kronstadt.

By the Associated Press.
STOCKHOLM, March 18.—The Bolsheviki launched a general attack against Kronstadt early yesterday according to refugees in Tericki, Finland.

Wednesday night and Thursday morning the fighting was very fierce. The Bolsheviki forces were repulsed at least once, according to reports.

The engagement began Wednesday evening with artillery preparation. Great damage was done and many persons were injured by the falling buildings. The bombardment continued in a most intense drumfire, and at 2 a. m. Thursday Soviet War Minister Trotsky, in command of the Bolsheviki, launched his main attack from Oranienbaum.

For this assault Trotsky had concentrated all of the new seventh army, totaling 60,000.

Kronstadt fired its 10-inch guns, and when the attacking forces were near enough, opened with a machine gun fire, causing severe losses.

Forward Entrance.
Nevertheless, the survivors forced an entrance through the Petropavlovsk gate, when the local communists joined them. But after two hours of fighting they were ejected.

Meanwhile, Kronstadt's obsolete batteries on the small island near the Karelian coast were blown up, and the defenders obliged to retreat. The obsolete forts of Totleben, Obuchovsk and Schantz lasted longer.

The Kronstadt garrison consisted of between 15,000 and 16,000 men. They were exhausted through lack of sleep.

Soon after the fall of the fortress the fugitives from the abandoned forts were seeking safety across the ice toward Finland.

THREE CHAINED BODIES OF NEGROES FOUND IN RIVER

Covington (Ga.) Authorities Unable to Learn of Any Cause Which Would Account for Deaths.

By the Associated Press.
COVINGTON, Ga., March 18.—County authorities here are investigating today the finding of three chained bodies of negroes in the Yellow River. The bodies of two negroes, chained together, were found in the river Tuesday, and yesterday the body of another negro was found chained to a sack of rocks resting on the river bed.

None of the three bodies has been identified, nor have there been any reports of racial trouble or tragedies in this section which would account for the deaths.

HYDE TO CALL ROADS SESSION BETWEEN APRIL 18 AND MAY 1

Governor Is Preparing Special Message to Legislature to Inform Members of Plan.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—Gov. Hyde has prepared a special message to the Legislature, two paragraphs in length, in which he will inform its members today that the special session on good roads will be convened between April 18 and May 1.

The Governor expects by that time to have disposed of the bills sent to him by the Legislature for signature or veto.

The House, which previously had killed a bill to provide for a joint committee to inspect roads in other states as to type, cost and similar details, and prepare information for the special session, today refused to authorize the House Roads Committee to convene for 10 days before the special session.

A resolution to require the committee to meet in that way to gather road information was offered by Representative Bette, of Andrain, and was referred to the Roads Committee, with instructions to prepare a substitute to require the Legislative Librarian to assemble the information desired.

SUIT TO BREAK JACOB LAMPERT WILL IS FILED

11 Nephews and Nieces Alleged Sister of Cigarmaker Influenced Him Against Willing Bounty to Them.

BULK OF $1,000,000 ESTATE TO HER

Filing of Action Brings to Light History of Cigar Business, Operated First From a Tenement.

A suit to set aside the will of Jacob Lampert, cigar manufacturer, who died Feb. 19, at the age of 65 years, leaving the bulk of an estate estimated at $1,000,000 to a sister, Mrs. Rosie Graff, was filed today on behalf of 11 nephews and nieces, children of Lampert's other two sisters, both of whom are dead.

Lampert was a bachelor. Mrs. Graff is the wife of Edward M. Graff, a photographer, of 5549 Pershing avenue.

For many years prior to his death Lampert made his home with Mrs. Graff, and his nephews and nieces allege that she influenced him against them by emphasizing tales to him, and by repeating to him things they had said which she construed as uncomplimentary to him, and indicating a lack of respect and affection toward him on their part.

"Poisoning of Mind" Alleged.
By this means she "poisoned the mind of Jacob Lampert against the suit," the petitioners continue, "and caused him to become imbued with the idea that the plaintiffs had no affection for him, and were not entitled to share in his bounty, and that consequently the bulk of his property and fortune should be left to her."

The contestants are the eight children of Morris Van Raalte of 5518 Cabanne avenue, whose wife, Flora Lampert, and the three children of William Gest, 5577 Nina place, Recording Clerk in Circuit Attorney Summers' office.

He and his wife, Mrs. Graff, were married in the same year to Miss Julia Vordes, in Pike County. He served as Circuit Attorney, and was elected judge of the circuit in 1907, and was admitted to the bar. He was married in the same year to Miss Julia Vordes, in Pike County.

HOLLANDERS URGED TO AVOID USE OF "DUTCH" ABROAD

Correspondents of Newspapers Say Term Is "Opprobrious" in America.

Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.
AMSTERDAM, March 18.—Citizens of Holland should refer to themselves, when abroad, as "Hollanders," rather than "Dutchmen," rules the Amsterdam Handelsblad after a long debate on that subject in its columns.

The correspondence in the Handelsblad has been voluminous. Especially since the war, says one writer, those Hollanders who forget that many Americans and Englishmen term Germans "Dutch," find scant welcome in the United States and England when they say they are "Dutch."

"If in England," writes this correspondent, "a Netherlands says he is a 'Hollander,' doors are open to him that are closed to 'Dutchmen.' 'Dutchman' is an opprobrious term in America," writes another.

JUDGE REYNOLDS OF APPEALS COURT DIES AT AGE OF 79

Jurist Succumbs at Home to the Grippe; Was Serving His Second Term on Bench.

By the Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 18.—Following the burning of two bridges on the Missouri & North Arkansas Railroad Wednesday night, one at Alpena and the other near St. Joe, Ark., service on the road has been suspended indefinitely. Freight and passenger embargoes were declared.

The line has partly been tied up by a strike of allied union men since they walked out several weeks ago in protest against a cut in wages of approximately 20 per cent, made effective Feb. 1.

Suspension was brought about by the burning of the bridges, derailing of a freight train Tuesday night, placing of obstructions on the tracks, and similar depredations. C. A. Phelan, receiver and general manager of the line, said:

Groups paraded the streets here last night.

In a statement W. G. Anderson, a brotherhood representative sent here direct, the walkout, said carelessness on the part of inexperienced men being used by the company may have been responsible for the burning of the bridges.

Order to Suspend Traffic.
General Manager Phelan sent the following telegram to various officials of the line:

"Passenger and freight train operation is discontinued. Bridges are being burned and tracks and rails are being placed on tracks and rails to derail engines and trains, telegraph lines are interrupted and employees in the service are being assaulted."

Judge Reynolds, at Little Rock, instructed four United States Deputy Marshals to go to Harrison, and stated that if necessary to protect the railroad property; others would be appointed.

Officers carried warrants for the arrest of striking employees of the road, who are charged with having assaulted men employed since the strike by union men.

Gov. McRae received an appeal from Judge J. H. Shinn of Harrison asking that 50 national guardsmen be placed on duty to protect bridges and other railroad property. The Governor said he did not wish to interfere in the matter, because of the Federal Court's jurisdiction over the strike.

Gov. McRae also received a request from Mayor Trimble of Harrison, to send a detachment of police in an effort to settle the trouble, but said he had no jurisdiction.

The railroad runs 365.25 miles from Joplin, Mo., to Helena, Ark. The strike has been in progress since the road was president of the road and for a time was receiver. St. Louis capital is interested in it, the St. Louis Union Trust Co. being mortgage trustee.

MAN SHOTS UNTIL HE DROPS BEFORE 60 POLICEMEN

Prowler Killed on a Back Porch on West Side of Chicago in View of Hundreds of Residents.

RUNS AND OPENS FIRE WHEN QUESTIONED

He Is Picked Up With Six Bullet Wounds and Broken Leg and Arm—Detective Shot During Fight.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 18.—An unidentified gunman, cornered after he had wounded a detective, barricaded himself on a back porch in the heart of the West Side here today, a pistol in either hand, and shot it out with 60 policemen.

Hundreds of residents of the neighborhood of Fifth and Kedzie avenues, who had fled in panic from their beds when stry bullets began to crash through their windows and the streets outside echoed with the spatter of 60 service pistols witnessed the death.

Despite their lack of clothing, they stood behind sheltering walls in the stiff morning wind and watched the fight. Policemen were at every available firing point—behind fences, in doorways, clustered on porches or flattened against roofs.

Detective Sergeant James Nix and Walter Blundell of the Warren Avenue Station opened the hostilities when they set out to search the man at Francisco avenue and West Madison street, who had attracted their attention when he allowed several stray cars to pass.

Man Runs When Questioned.
"We stopped him and asked him what he was doing out at that time of night," said Sgt. Blundell.

"He told us that he was working in a restaurant at Madison street. It was plain to us that he was not telling the truth. We decided to search him. But when we ordered him to throw up his hands, he ran."

"I fired once in the air as a warning and once at his back when he failed to halt. The second shot must have come close to him for he swung around with a gun in each hand and began shooting. I got in as close as I could to the buildings and continued to shoot."

"The man turned around and ran toward Sacramento avenue. I followed him. He turned around and ran toward Sacramento avenue.

SIMONS EXPECTS TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE ALLIES AGAIN

German Foreign Minister Says Reconstruction in France Will Be Basis of Further Proposals.

TRADE WITH EASTERN EUROPE DISCUSSED

Minister of Economics Holds Out Prospect of the Gradual Abolition of Export Duties.

By the Associated Press. BERLIN, March 18.—Dr. Walter Simons, the Foreign Minister, speaking before a committee of the Economic Council of the Reichstag yesterday, said "we are pretty well agreed that sooner or later we shall enter again into negotiations with the Allies."

He added: "I am of the opinion that our adversaries' method of laying down figures for Germany's capacity in the form of annuities for a long time beforehand will prove a failure. We must face the problem from another side and place the work of reconstruction in the foreground of our proposals, at the same time formulating as comprehensive a plan as possible for reconstruction of the devastated regions of France."

Dr. Simons expressed the view that the French economic distress could only be relieved with the aid of German labor, which might be put forward as security for a loan.

Dr. Scholz, Minister of Economics, declared that in view of the allied penalties German trade must seek fresh channels, and expressed the hope that Eastern Europe would be able to absorb German goods. With the view of facilitating the opening of these channels he held out the prospect of an extension of the export free list, the dropping of price control in most spheres and gradual abolition of export duties.

The increase of unemployment, which Germany was threatened as a result of the allied penalties, Dr. Scholz added, would be met by promotion of the building trade and reconstruction of the merchant marine.

He emphasized the necessity of maintaining the prohibition on the importation of superfluous foreign goods.

French Chamber Approves Application of Penalties to Germany.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, March 18.—The decisions of the London reparations conference, the occupation of Düsseldorf and other German cities and the application of the allied economic penalties on Germany were approved by the Chamber of Deputies yesterday by a vote that was virtually unanimous except for the Socialists and Communists. The vote as officially given out was 451 to 66.

Premier Briand, replying to former Minister of Finance Klotz and former Minister of War Lefevre, who, respectively, insisted upon further light as to the Government's intentions with regard to execution of the treaty of Versailles and securing the disarmament of Germany, took occasion to answer Germany's protest to the League of Nations against the allied occupation on the ground that it was a violation of the treaty.

He called the attention of the chamber to the fact that at the same time this protest was sent Germany had refused, on the grounds of the reparations commission, to execute the clause of the treaty calling for the payment of 20,000,000,000 gold marks.

"Germany," he said, "has violated the treaty in three essential clauses—disarmament, reparations and the trial of accused officers. Thus the sanctions as provided for in the treaty are applicable and just, as we have applied them."

The Allied Commission of Control, he declared, was working under the advice of Marshals Wilson and Foch and might be depended upon to satisfy the requirements of M. Lefevre as to the disarmament of Germany.

M. Lefevre said that since he declared in a previous debate in the chamber that Germany was making a new machine gun capable of shooting 1500 bullets a minute, its existence had been proven. The guns had been found in Koenigsberg, he declared, along with a new type of 6-inch cannon, proving that the Germans were making new armaments to replace that destroyed under allied control. He said that material had been discovered in cellars of the Spandau arsenal sufficient to manufacture 6000 field guns.

A bill providing for the Premier for a specific answer whether or not the London decisions brought the question of reparations back to the treaty of Versailles. The Premier answered that obviously, since the Paris accord had not been accepted by the Germans, the treaty had not been modified.

A bill providing for the collection by the French Government of 50 per cent of the purchase price of all German goods sold in France was introduced in the Chamber of Deputies by M. Doumer, Minister of Finance. The bill follows the general lines of the measure presented in the British House of Commons. It does not apply to purchases made before March 8, and does not affect goods in transit or in bond.

HOUSE AMENDS BOWKER INCOME TAX MEASURE

By the Associated Press. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 18.—The House today amended the Bowker income tax bill, passed by the Senate, putting the exemptions for single persons back to $1000 and for married persons back to $2000, then passing the bill. The measure would reduce the income tax from 14 per cent to 10 per cent and would increase the exemption on each child from $200 to $400. The Senate bill placed exemptions at $1500 for single persons and $3000 for those with dependents.

Republican Floor Leader Morgan indicated to newspaper men that unless the Senate accepts the amendments the measure will remain in limbo.

CROSS CHARGES AGAINST STILLMAN FILED BY WIFE

Allegations Exactly Parallel Those Made by New York Banker in His Suit for Divorce.

MENTIONS WOMAN AND A CHILD

Charges Stillman Was Guilty of Misconduct and Is the Father of an Illegitimate Son.

By the Associated Press. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 18.—The possibility of indefinite postponement of arguments on two motions in the divorce suit of James A. Stillman, president of the National City Bank of New York, against the former "Fifi" Potter, was ended today by John F. Brennan, counsel for Mrs. Stillman.

Justice Morschauer an order directing that next Wednesday morning arguments shall be made on the motion of Mrs. Stillman to require Stillman to show his financial status and on the motion for $10,000 a month alimony and $25,000 counsel fees.

"When you get through next week, you will have it just as we have it. Again, I say that there are going to be no star chamber proceedings before me," said Justice Morschauer to reporters.

By the Associated Press. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 18.—It became known today that the extraordinary charges brought by James A. Stillman, president of the National City Bank, in his divorce and illegitimacy action, have been met by equally sensational charges against him.

Mrs. Stillman, in papers presented to Justice Morschauer in support of her motion for an amended answer and alimony, has made charges that exactly parallel the allegations against her on the two big issues.

In reply to Stillman's accusation that she was guilty of misconduct with Ford Beausais, the Indian guide, Mrs. Stillman declares that her husband also was unfaithful, and names Mrs. Florence H. Leeds as the woman.

In reply to the charge that her youngest son, Guy, is illegitimate, Mrs. Stillman declares that her husband is the father of an illegitimate child. This child, she alleges, is the son of Mrs. Leeds, and was born about the same time as Guy. His name is Ray Leeds.

Mrs. Stillman's charges, she says, are in a long period, beginning September, 1917, and continuing until the present. She accuses the banker of living with Mrs. Leeds as wife and mistress in an apartment at 64 East Eighty-sixth street, where the boy, Guy, was born. According to Mrs. Stillman, her husband posed as Franklin Harold Leeds.

The accusations brought by Mrs. Stillman mention Stony Brook, L. I., as well as the apartment house on Eighty-sixth street. Guy, she says, was born in September, 1918, in New York City. Guy Stillman was born in November of the same year.

Mrs. Stillman declares Stillman is the father of the boy, Guy, the youngest of her four children.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillman both ask for the custody of the three older children—Anne, 12; James, 11; and Alexander, 11. Alexander and Guy are with their mother at Lakewood. Anne is at finishing school and James is at preparatory school. Anne is the only one of the children that still visits him.

Women Noted for Beauty. All the women in the case are noted for their beauty. Mrs. Stillman was the famous society beauty, "Fifi" Potter, before her marriage to the banker in 1901. She is 41 years old. Mrs. Leeds is said to be 22. She is the daughter of a small shop keeper, according to the best information, and has appeared on the musical comedy stage in small parts.

It is understood that, whereas testimony regarding his charges has been taken at the referee's hearings, no testimony has been taken as to Mrs. Stillman's charges. This is waiting on Justice Morschauer's decision as to her motion for alimony.

The next step in the legal battle is expected to be taken Saturday in this city, when the adjourned hearing of the main alimony motion is scheduled to come before Justice Morschauer.

Attached to the proposed answer were supporting affidavits sworn to by Mrs. Sophie Erickson Bohoff of 1724 Park avenue, who as Sophie Erickson was employed as a maid in Mrs. Leeds' home during a period covered by the charges; by Frank Evans, superintendent of the apartments at 64 East Eighty-sixth street, and by Hannah Johnson, a cook, now living at Setauket, L. I.

Grand Jury to Be Called to Investigate Death of Leroy Lovett, Whose Double Is Charged With Killing.

QUESTIONING FAILS TO ALTER STORY

Police Believe One Person Could Not Have Carried Out All Efforts Made to Conceal Crime.

By the Associated Press. WARSAW, Ind., March 18.—A call for the Kosciusko County grand jury to make an investigation into the death of Leroy Lovett, in connection with which Virgil Decker, Lovett's double, is being held here on a charge of murder, probably will go out today. Sheriff C. B. Moon after a conference with Judge L. W. Royce and Prosecuting Attorney Henry W. Graham last night, announced the grand jury would be called immediately.

Decker was questioned at length by the authorities last night. However, he still maintained his innocence of any connection with the death of Lovett, Sheriff Moon said. The funeral of Lovett will be held this afternoon at Elkhart, Ind.

Accomplice Sought. The efforts of the officers have been centered largely on learning something of an alleged accomplice who assisted Lovett's slayer. They believe it would have been impossible for the person who is believed to have slain Lovett to have carried out all the efforts which were made to cover up the crime. These included the changing of the clothes by the slayer, the placing of a rug on the railroad tracks near Atwood, Ind., and an attempt to make it appear that Lovett was fatally injured when a train hit the buggy.

Motives for the crime advanced by the officers include the fact that Lovett was a well-to-do man, and that he was believed to have been carrying out a plan to obtain money on policies taken out by Virgil Decker through a false identification of the body, and a quarrel between members of the Decker and Lovett families. The theory of the insurance plot is based on attempts by members of the Lovett family to identify the body of the dead boy as that of Virgil Decker, who was a light brown hair, and bears a strong resemblance to Lovett.

CHARGES DETECTIVES GOVERN MINGO COUNTY

Attorney for Defense in Matewan Riot Trial Vigorously Assails Prosecution.

By the Associated Press. WILLIAMSON, W. Va., March 18.—In addressing the jury bearing the case of 16 residents of Matewan charged with responsibility for the death of Albert C. Felt, a private detective, in the fight at Matewan last May, when 10 persons were slain, Harold W. Houston, attorney for the defense, declared today that not one of the lawyers conducting the prosecution can say he "represents" the Commonwealth of West Virginia.

"It is time that Mingo County should be governed by the taxpayers and not by a private detective agency," he cried.

He charged that T. L. Felt, general manager of the Baldwin-Felt Detective Agency and a brother of the slain operative, "feeds the attorneys." He added that "eventually the money comes from the pockets of Mingo County miners."

Says Crime Was Joining Union. "What crime had these men committed to have armed non-residents turned in on them?" he asked, answering his own question by saying: "Because the crime they committed, calling down the power of the coal operators upon them, was joining the miners' union."

Houston read a letter admitted in evidence, which it was testified, was taken from the body of Albert C. Felt. It referred to an attempt that was to be made to get Sid Hatfield, Matewan Police Chief, and one of the defendants, into the agency's employment.

"They wanted to make Sid Hatfield a traitor," he shouted the attorney. "They wanted to buy him like they did Isaac Brewer and C. E. Lively. If Hatfield could have been bought he would have been in the place of Brewer and Lively today. But he couldn't be bought and today stands trial for his life. I am proud to know that Matewan has such unimpeachable men in office. Poor, perhaps, but men who won't sell their manhood."

Brewer, an original defendant, testified for the State after the case against him was dismissed. Lively, the State's "surprise" witness, is a private detective.

Refers to Families' Evictions. Houston declared the detective agency "not only tried to buy Hatfield, but offered to pay $1000 for a permit to bring a machine gun into Matewan to shoot down union men."

Referring to the eviction of miners' families from their places of abode by private detectives on the day of the shooting, during which A. C. Felt and nine other persons were killed, Houston argued "that if eviction processes had been obtained in a lawful way there would have been no trouble in Matewan" last May.

John S. Marcum of counsel for the prosecution, next addressed the jury. He attacked union organizers and pointed out what he said were the benefits derived from the coal operators' management in the Mingo fields.

"Did these defendants show the detectives any mercy? If they did they deserve mercy; but they did not," he said.

3 PLEAD GUILTY TO BURGLARY

Three men today pleaded guilty to second degree burglary on a charge of having stolen 1500 cigars valued at $200 Jan. 22 from a drug store at Taylor avenue and Page boulevard and were sentenced by Judge Hall to two years each in the penitentiary.

They are John B. McCormack, 29 years old, 361 North Taylor avenue; William Marshall, 23, 1324 Page street, and Anthony McCoy, 32, 5165 Clinton avenue.

CONSTABLE SLAIN BY IRISH IN REPRISAL

Shooting in Galway Follows Execution — Merchant Who Takes Case to Court Killed.

By the Associated Press. DUBLIN, March 18.—As a reprisal for the execution Monday of Thomas Whelan, in Mountjoy Prison, Constable O'Kane was shot dead in Clifden, County Galway, Wednesday night and another Constable was wounded. Crown forces made searches to discover the authors of the shootings and shot to death John McDonald, who is alleged to have attempted to evade arrest.

Three bombs were thrown at a military lorry Wednesday night. The soldiers returned the fire and some civilians were wounded.

W. M. Kennedy, a merchant, was shot and killed and his solicitor wounded, Wednesday night. They had taken a case involving land ownership to the Curlew Assizes.

The railway station at Ballyhugh, County Antrim, an Orange center, and 12 loaded cars were destroyed yesterday morning. They had been soaked with petrol. A train proceeding from Portadown for Antrim also was looted.

Riots Follow Looting of Spirit Shop in Town Near Belfast.

BELFAST, Ireland, March 18.—Ballymacarrett, across the River Lagan from Belfast, where disorders have occurred in recent months, was again the scene of serious riots yesterday. Crowds looted the spirit shops and became so menacing that the police had to call on the military, in charge of patrolling the district with armored cars. Several baton charges occurred.

HOUSE PASSES BILL TO LIMIT PRACTICE OF OPTOMETRY

All Except Skilled Persons Now Practicing Must Have Certificate After Oct. 1.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 18.—The House last night finally passed a bill making it unlawful for anyone except physicians, surgeons or other skilled in treatment of eyes and nose practicing, to attempt to practice optometry after Oct. 1, next, without a certificate of registration from the State Board of Optometry. This board of five is to be appointed by the Governor.

The vote on the bill was 96 to 36. Its passage brings to a close a long fight by the Missouri optometrists for such a law.

CLARA HAMON

CHARGE BY JURY

ON FIRST BALLOT

Only 40 Minutes Required to Reach Verdict of Acquittal in Shooting Last November of Oklahoma G. O. P. Committeeman and Millionaire Oil Man.

DEFENDANT GASPS IN SILENT ROOM

Woman Leaves Courtroom by Secret Passage to Escape Crowd Threatening to Overwhelm Her With Congratulatory.

By the Associated Press. ARDMORE, Ok., March 18.—Clara Smith Hamon was acquitted yesterday of a charge of having murdered Jake L. Hamon, Republican National Committeeman from Oklahoma and millionaire railroad and oil promoter. The jury received the case at 4:30 p. m. and returned to the courtroom 40 minutes later.

When the verdict was read the defendant gasped audibly in the tense silent courtroom, dropped forward in her seat only to be seized from behind by her young brother, "Jimmy" squeaked her violently and kissed her left cheek. Tears came to her eyes and the other members of her family cried with her as she rushed to the standing jury and haltingly thanked them for their verdict.

She talked to reporters when she was brought out in evidence introduced as being a vicious fight with the young defendant. He was shot once through the right upper breast by a .25-caliber bullet and died five days later.

Clara Hamon immediately left Ardmore, departing on Nov. 22, on instructions of Hamon and Frank L. Ketch, former business manager for Hamon, according to testimony in the trial. She went to Chihuahua City, Mexico. She surrendered to the Carter County Sheriff at El Paso and returned to Ardmore on Christmas day.

John T. Milliken Jr., fined $100 for reckless driving. He is warned that next time he violates speed laws he will be sent to jail.

John T. Milliken Jr., of 35 Portland place, son of the late multi-millionaire chemical manufacturer, was fined $100 and costs in Justice Stecker's court at Clayton today for reckless and careless driving, and was warned that if he appeared again for a similar charge he would be sent to jail.

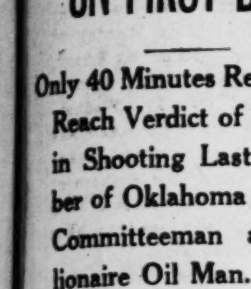

Deputy Constable George Roth testified that Milliken, accompanied by a man and woman, was driving west on the Clayton road at Pennsylvania avenue at about 40 miles an hour at 10:30 o'clock last night, and that when he discovered he was being pursued he increased the speed of his car to 55 miles an hour until he reached the Elgin mile house on the Manchester road.

Milliken's excuse was that he had accepted a challenge from a St. Louis friend to race the first time they met in the county and that as the road was clear he did not think he was driving at a dangerous speed. Roth said that Milliken was not racing another car.

Prosecuting Attorney Mueller pointed out to Milliken that as it was his third offense he was subject to a jail sentence and forfeiture of his right to drive an automobile. Milliken pleaded for leniency.

asket containing the boxes of cigars on the other, she went from grocery and drug store to saloon, or wherever she thought there was prospect of a sale.

Sometimes buyers were reluctant, and she bargained with them, offering cigars in exchange for groceries, household articles, and even medicines. Soon her face, framed in an old shawl, became familiar in many places where cigars were sold, and she built up a small trade.

She went to a lower floor of the county building, where she sat for some time receiving congratulations. None of the members of the family, however, was in the courtroom when the jury returned its verdict. Mrs. Hamon, the widow and her 19-year-old son, Jake L. SALE OF FORD'S PAPER ILLEGAL, DAUES SAYS

City Counselor's Opinion States Selling by Criers on Streets May Be Punished.

City Counselor Daves today gave a written opinion to Chief of Police O'Brien, in which he said the selling of the Dearborn Independent, Henry Ford's weekly paper, by criers on the streets of St. Louis constitutes a violation of the law which may be punished under the statute defining defamation and criminal libel or under city ordinance defining disturbance of the peace. The reason for his opinion, he says, is that the publication contains matter "obviously intended to reflect injuriously upon the character and conduct of persons of Jewish extraction."

Chief O'Brien asked for the opinion several days ago on instructions from Victor J. Miller, president of the Board of Police Commissioners. President Miller today said that Louis P. Alos, president of the Board of Aldermen, former Circuit Judge Moses N. Sale and Aaron Waldheim, as a committee representing the Jewish people, called on him and asked that the police suppress the sale of the Dearborn Independent. He then instructed Chief O'Brien to obtain an opinion from the City Counselor.

When informed that the City Counselor had ruled that persons selling the paper might be prosecuted by the police, President Miller said: "That course will be pursued."

The City Counselor's opinion is as follows:

"Col. Martin O'Brien, Chief of Police: A few days ago you asked me whether in my opinion the practice of selling by criers on the street the publication of the Dearborn Independent, which is a publication containing matter obviously reflecting injuriously upon the character and conduct of persons of Jewish extraction, constituted a violation of the law or not."

"I am of the opinion that it does. There are two separate and distinct laws in my judgment, that this practice violates. One is a State law and the other a municipal ordinance. The State law is section 3613 of the Revised Statutes of 1919, which defines the offense, and section 3614 is the penalty provision, and I do not believe application of this law is debatable."

"The statute defines malicious defamation of a person, and hence includes a class of persons, by 'printing, writing, sign, picture, representation or effigy, tending to provoke him to wrath or expose him to public hatred, contempt or ridicule, or to deprive him of public confidence and social intercourse.'"

"The penalty clause provides that all those who either compose, dictate or procure the same to be done or who publish or circulate or knowingly aid or abet in the same, shall be fined not more than $100."

"A prosecutor, under these statutes, is directed to the prosecuting attorney, Mr. Oakley, with whom I have talked over the telephone, and while I did not go into the statutes, he expressed a willingness to cooperate to stop this damnable practice."

"Of course, it is assumed that the publication itself does in fact make a defamatory statement, and that the citizens of this city and for the human race in general."

"Babson declares that the entrance qualifications to the class of the 2 per cent are honesty, industry and vision, the latter being the rarest qualification and the one hardest to develop."

"statutory provisions as to freedom of speech and freedom of the press. That does not in any wise, in my judgment, alter the situation. Under that shield no person is permitted to violate the law against defamation and criminal libel."

"It is hardly conceivable that anyone could even hesitate as to the propriety of stopping defamation of good citizens."

"The publication, as I understand it, is intended to reflect upon a whole class of people. If the statute means anything, it means that, just such a publication as this should be suppressed and those who violate the provisions of the same should be punished."

"I have in mind constitutional and

BYRNES HEADQUARTERS OPENED DOWNTOWN

Independent Committee Headed by A. B. Lambert in Office at 1101 Olive Street.

The Byrnes-for-Mayor headquarters, in charge of an independent committee headed by Albert Bond Lambert, and located at the northwest corner of Eleventh and Olive streets, opened today.

Lambert said today that a meeting of the committee would be called within a few days, and that the matter illustrating the position of the independent voter in the present city campaign. The committee will proceed independently of the Democratic City Committee. James W. Byrnes, while the Democratic nominee, intends to conduct a nonpartisan campaign, on a platform of business efficiency.

Byrnes said he expected his platform, as announced last Saturday, and without "whereas" or essential alterations, to be adopted at the afternoon's platform meeting of Democratic candidates, which is held under the requirements of the primary law, the place of assembly being the Democratic City Committee headquarters in the Pontiac building.

Byrnes will speak at a meeting Monday night in Drill Corps Hall, Iowa avenue and Sidney street. Lawrence McDaniel, former Circuit Attorney, will also address this meeting.

Sen Runyan and A. E. Hughes are in charge of the Byrnes headquarters as secretaries. Hughes was Democratic nominee for Congress in the Tenth District last fall.

Chairs have been placed in the headquarters under for the purpose of holding midday meetings.

VIVIANI TO URGE AMERICA TO ENTER THE LEAGUE

Former French Premier, on Visit to U. S., May Offer to Strike Out Article Ten.

By the Associated Press. PARIS, March 18.—Rene Viviani, former Premier of France, on his forthcoming visit to the United States will go prepared to ask on behalf of the Council of the League of Nations whether the United States Government will not enter the League of Nations provided article 10 is stricken from the covenant of the league.

This has not been disclosed officially, nor by M. Viviani himself, but it is the understanding of his intimate associates in public life that this will be the primary object of his visit to Washington.

To Make It Easy. M. Viviani will set forth considerations which he considers will make it easy for the United States to enter the league. He has talked over the question with members of the French Government and with the council of the league and with various persons in Paris who are regarded as having special knowledge of the United States.

Further, it is understood that M. Viviani will point out that the French and allied nations cannot abandon the covenant of the league because it is inseparably interwoven with the execution of the treaty of Versailles, first, with regard to the administration of the Saar region; second, the administration of Danzig and the Polish corridor; third, that it has given title to the districts of the Euphrates and Malmedy to Belgium; and fourth, that it is charged to supervise the restriction of Germany's armament.

Would Mitigate Treaty. Besides, M. Viviani will contend that any efforts to separate the covenant from the treaty would render less secure the fact that the treaty already is the treaty of Versailles. This is deemed particularly important because the allies at present are applying military and economic pressure to enforce the treaty.

M. Viviani became a strong partisan of the League of Nations during the recent meeting of the assembly of the league at Geneva. He seems to have replaced Leon Bourgeois as the principal French exponent of the league.

Stephane Lauzanne, chief editor of the Matin, will accompany M. Viviani to the United States. M. Lauzanne was one of the important representatives of the French Government in the League of Nations during the years of the war.

On June 7, 1920, Mrs. Meyenburg consented to the sale of the property and in the following October, before her consent had been reduced to writing, she was declared insane. Mrs. Van Cleave ended her life Sept. 16, 1920.

The trustees stated that their reason for desiring to sell the property is that it is bringing only $25.50 a month in rental to the estate while the taxes amount to $2600 a year. It is no longer serving the purpose for which it was created, namely, to furnish an income for the heirs of the testator. The property is assessed for taxation at $1650 an acre.

Measures Part of Governor's Program to Bring Assessed Valuation to Near Actual Value.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The Senate today passed the series of bills to increase taxation 10 per cent in all counties, cities, towns and school districts in the State.

The bills are a part of the Hyde program to bring assessed valuation of property to approximately actual value. As this would mean at least doubling taxes in most parts of the State, bills were prepared to prohibit an increase of more than 10 per cent in the jurisdiction of each tax-paying authority. The bills have passed the House and require only the signature of the Governor to become law.

POLES, RUMANIANS AND CZECHS IN PACT FOR COMMON DEFENSE

By the Associated Press. PARIS, March 18.—An entente for common defense has been reached between Poland, Rumania and Czechoslovakia. It was learned in diplomatic circles here today.

The tripartite agreement has principally in view defense against eventual attacks by the Bolsheviks. This arrangement brings to the entente a large element of strength in the fact that it facilitates the manufacture of arms and ammunition in the great Skoda works in Czechoslovakia.

Aged Lawyer Dies of Pneumonia. Herman A. Haussler, 83 years old, of 3117 Russell avenue, a lawyer, with offices in the Laclede Building, died of pneumonia last night at his home, after four weeks' illness. THE JUNIOR HERALD Published Once in a While
By Stix, Baer & Fuller for Boys and Girls, Their Sisters and Their Parents

LAST week the Junior Herald appeared for the first time. We hoped you would like it, in fact, we knew you would. But truly we were surprised at how much you liked it.
You liked it in the very best sort of way. You liked it well enough to take the trouble to tell us about it. That made us very proud and happy. It makes us want to make the Junior Herald better and more interesting for you to read every time it is published —and it makes us anxious to hear from you again.

Please don't forget to send us any suggestions about things you'd like to see on this page. It is your page and it should be as you want it.

And if you have not signed the sub-to have your very own copy the next time the Junior Herald is published.

Lady Jane's Answers to Children's Questions

Miss Marjorie Muffett, 5338 Childwood Place.

My Dear Miss Muffett—I feel sure your doll, Lucille, is homesick. You must remember she comes from the Stix, Baer & Fuller Toy Department, and that is the home of the loveliest toys in the world. She must be lonely for her toy friends.

Why don't you visit this wonderful store and buy one of the Eastern Bunnies.
You will find it an adorable toy and I'm sure Lucille will be cheered up by an old playmate.

Miss Peggy Perkins, 1234 Playmate Avenue.

My Dear Miss Perkins—
It is indeed sad when your beloved dolls lose their hair and get limp in the saddest way. I feel sure your children need fresh air.

Why don't you ask mother to buy you one of the lovely doll bunnies at the Stix, Baer & Fuller Toy Department? They have all kinds from the great big reed one that will hold all your family at one time, to little weeny ones that would just hold your littlest baby. If you had a doll buggy you could take your dollies walking up and down the block. My, wouldn't you be proud?

Lady Jane will gladly answer any question addressed to her in care of the Junior Herald.

75 School Children Visit Stix, Baer & Fuller Victrola Department

LAST Saturday morning 75 children from the public schools of the city were entertained by the playing of records on the Fourth Floor of the Stix, Baer & Fuller store.

The pieces played were those given in the public school music memory test. The young audience was delighted with the good time they had and promised to come very soon again.

All school children are invited to attend the musicale given every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 and on Saturday morning from 9 to 10:30. (Fourth Floor.)

Children's Barber Shop at Stix, Baer & Fuller Store Visited by Young Athlete

LARRY HUNT, aged 6, well known as the best marble player of school, swaggered into the Stix, Baer & Fuller Barber Shop, for the children, last Saturday.

He climbed into one of the fine barber chairs that are made just like the ones his dad uses in the shop upstairs.
"I like to sit in a barber chair made for children my size," he exclaimed.
"Mother says I get the best hair cut here where they have an expert children's barber."

Everyone was impressed with his manly air as he stood by his little sister while she had her hair bobbed in a most becoming style. The two stylish young people went out followed by many admiring glances. (Second Floor.)

Lost—A Shell Pink Sweater

A VERY beautiful Sweater, knitted in fancy basket-weave stitch, was lost in Forest Park last sunny afternoon by a dainty little blonde about two years old. The Sweater was the loveliest one she ever had and she wants to find it right away because if it is really gone for good, her mother will get another at the Stix, Baer & Fuller Baby Shop.

Of course the finder will hate to give it up, but when you know you can buy just anything a little child needs at this wonderful store, you won't mind a bit.

Bunnies in Convention

THE Annual Pre-Easter Convention of Bunnies is now in progress in the Toy Department on the Fifth Floor of Stix, Baer & Fuller's.
A staff photographer from the Herald snapped them just as Peter Rabbit was about to put across his popular bill "That any Rabbit might lay claim to any carrot at any time, wherever it might be, and no questions asked."

Many People Are Mis- informed — Mistakes Are Corrected Here

SOMEONE has told it about that when it comes to Hats only girls count. Much indignation has been aroused among the young men in spite of their knightly intentions of being courteous to the fair sex.

They spend much time and a great deal of thought in selecting the most becoming styles and colors (of course this is not usually admitted, but in a serious case like this it is necessary to speak the truth) and they assume us that the number of different styles is quite as great as that from which their sisters choose. At Stix, Baer & Fuller's (where all the fellows buy head gear) Straw Hats are priced from $1.95 to $6.50 and Hats and Caps from $1.48 to $3.95 (Fourth Floor.)

Small Boy Tells Why His Wash Suits Are Al- ways Right

MASTER BOB WILLIAMS has been recognized as an authority on the right kind of clothes for a boy to wear. Practically ever since he declared his independence from petticoats, five years ago. He seems to know what Suits give him the proper manly appearance, and he manages at the same time to satisfy all the desires of his mother as to colors that stay clear and bright and materials that don't tear too easily.

We have all longed to know his secret and yesterday he grew generous and told his secret to a Herald reporter. We feel that we are not violating any rules of politeness when we tell it to you, since it is so valuable to know.

He always buys his clothes at Stix, Baer & Fuller's and doesn't worry any more about it! Simple, isn't it?
Furthermore he told of a special selling of fine Wash Suits, for young fellows, from 3 to 9 years old, for Saturday, at $1.95. Almost every style may be had. There are many other styles and prices to be added. (Fourth Floor.)

Rabbit Stories for Easter

BUNNIES in overalls and Bunnies in dresses, father bunnies and mother bunnies—the Easter Books have the funniest, dearest pictures you ever saw. You get them at the Stix, Baer & Fuller Book Shop.

Found—Jumping Rabbit

IN the Stix, Baer & Fuller Toy Department for 69c, and also a cunning Rooster in a coop. The Rooster has a voice. He costs 79c. Any little boy or girl can get them at the Favor Department on the Main Floor.

A Story for You

The Naughty Vain Bunny and the Naughty Vain Chick

ONE bright sunny morning—just the day before Easter, to be exact—very spry, very fluffy, very happy little bunny was hopping across the lawn.

He was thinking about how a little girl, a few moments before, had clapped her hands with delight at the sight of him. He wiggled his toes in the soft grass, kicked up his heels and took a long flying leap, just because he felt so exceedingly joyful.

When he came down on his four little paws again he found himself right nose to bill with the roundest, fluffiest, yellowest bit of a baby chick either he or you have ever seen.

"Chirp, chirp," said the baby chick.

"Hello," said the bunny.

"My, but you do go flouncing about," scolded the chick.

"You almost pounced down exactly on top of me. You behave as if you were about the finest thing in all the world."

"How clever you are," exclaimed the bunny, "for that is exactly what I have been thinking. I'm so handsome, and the little girl back there likes me so much that I'm quite sure I must be right."

"And I'm quite sure you are very wrong," and the little chick's bill fairly snapped as he said it. "For you can easily see, with my lovely soft down and very pleasing little ways, that it is I who must be named the finest living creature in all the world."

And will you believe, that naughty vain bunny and that naughty vain chick fell to quarreling.

So excited did they become that they paid no heed to what was going on around them. And you may well know that their little hearts quite stopped beating for a moment when they saw bending over them the tall form of a great big man.

Of course, they tried to scurry away, but the little bunny felt himself being gently lifted by his long ears, and the

Miss Susie Small Leaves for Palm Beach

BEFORE departing for the South, Miss Small of Happy Place, entertained with an informal tea. Her Spring wardrobe was inspected by a few intimate friends, who went into raptures over the adorable frocks and hats that are to grace this fair maid on her visit.

The loveliest green Swiss with white dots was trimmed with flutings of net footings. A frilly bonnet of the same materials made the costume complete.
Primroses of rose-colored organdie adorned the ends of the dresses and the coquettish bonnet strings. Miss Small had this exquisite outfit made to suit her own type of beauty in the Stix, Baer & Fuller Made-to-Order Baby Shop.

A corn-colored frock of imported dimity trimmed only with lace and embroidery in self-color and brown floss. The box pleats of the skirt gave a saucy flare to this unusual frock that was a product of the Made-to-Order Shop at the Stix, Baer & Fuller Store. A white Milan braid poke bonnet lined with sky blue and edged with a frill of lace is to be worn with the frock.

St. Patrick's Day Party At- tended by Younger Set Wearing Tailored Clothes

THE St. Patrick's Day party given at The Children's Club was a smart gathering on Thursday afternoon.

It was a pleasure to see this smart set wearing the most elegantly tailored clothes, which are being featured by the Stix, Baer & Fuller Baby Store.

One boy's reefer of diagonal mixture was trimmed with a brown velvet collar and worn with a brown Milan hat turned up all around. The best dressed girl wore an old blue tweed coat, double breasted, with gray pearl buttons. Both these garments were Stix, Baer & Fuller styles, which seemed to be favored by the exclusive youngsters.

Bunnies Know Children by Their Shoes

RABBITS think a lot about feet. You see, feet are closer to them than faces. A little boy is six times as big as a rabbit and his face seems so high up that the little bunny never tries to look at it.

But bunny remembers your Shoes.
The bunny at our house wrinkles up his nose in great excitement when he sees two little ankle-strap Slippers.
He knows that's the dear little girl who always wears "Kewpie Twin" Shoes. Sometimes they are brown and sometimes they are white washable calfskin. But bunny knows his little friend by this wonderful Stix, Baer & Fuller brand.

But when big brown Oxfords come dashing across the grass, bunny knows it's the big brother and he takes care that the polished "Like Dad's" Shoes do not get too close to a small rabbit.
These are Stix, Baer & Fuller Shoes, too, and they stay good so long that the rabbit seldom has to get used to a new pair. (Main Floor.)

Well Dressed Children

EVEN if you are just a little child, your friends look at your hands and are shocked if they don't look just as nice as mother's and dads'. We all know that Stix, Baer & Fuller have fine French Gloves with pique seams, in sizes for the tiny tot.
They are just $1.25, and so you see you must get some right away.

Now, if you really want to have an air! Get mother to let you spend a dollar and a half for Silk Gloves that are to your elbow. They are simply adorable and are either white or ponge.

The short Silk Gloves are awfully nice, too, and are just $1.00.

What Do Girls Talk About? A Reporter for The Herald "Listens In"

Child Makes Discov- ery in Downtown Hat Shop

A FEW days ago customers in Stix, Baer & Fuller's Millinery Shop were electrified to hear a child's voice piping: "Such a diversified collection of tailored Hats I have never before seen as I now behold." After partially recovering from the shock of hearing a child make such a high-sounding statement, a few of the most interested people gathered about the child and her mother. It seems that the two had been shopping at different times for a hat for the child without finding just what they wanted. Consequently, when the child found herself surrounded by hats any one of which she would be pleased to own, she could not suppress this very grown-up but most expressive statement.
(Third Floor.)

FOUR girls block- ed the sidewalk, all talking at once.

"Come on, Sybil,
I'm going to buy my own confirmation dress," exclaimed a pretty 14-year-old in a charmingly youthful wrap.
"Mother lets me do all my own shopping because I get everything at the Stix, Baer & Fuller Girls' Store. She says I can't make a mistake there. They have the loveliest organdies and chiffons and Georgettes. Come on."
"Let's eat first, I'm starved," said a dark girl in a smart suit with a box coat.

"Pooh," exclaimed the girl with the bobbed hair, "I'd rather visit the Girls' Store than eat any time."

They moved toward their favorite store arm in arm. Our brave reporter meekly flattened himself against a lamp post to let them pass.

"And, my dear, they have the best-looking Wraps for girls our age.
You never—" The last voice died away as they entered the mecca of feminine desires. (Third Floor.)

Latest Reports From the Misses' Store Tell of Stunning Easter Wearables

By Special Bulletin Service to Junior Herald

THAT Easter time may be as brilliant in every way as possible, a representative from the Misses' Store has paid a special visit to the fashion centers and returned laden with all sorts of wonderful things to send thrills of delight to the heart of every one who sees them.

You're Buying a Suit

Then do hustle in and see these before you decide. Tricotine and twill, the finest and softest, the kind that tailors like so well, and speaking of tailoring—the Suits cut on plain mannish lines are quite the most trig outfits we've seen.

Of course, if you want something with a kind of elaborateness then you'll want to see Suits in ripple tail and blouse effects with perhaps a generous share of braiding or embroidery. If you are 14 to 20 years old or slight of stature you can find a Suit here for $55 to $185.
(Third Floor.)

A Wrap You Must Have

To slip over the frocks are affairs which answer the name of coat, but they are really visions of beading and smartness. Wrappy or dolman styles of very aristocratic turn are made of marvelous, Bolivia, velvet, satins and tri-cotines and may be purchased from $45 to $125.

The "Always-at-Your-Service" polo Coats in mannish cut and fine in all silk lining may be had for $25. But you, of course, realize that this is a very special price. (Third Floor.)

Hear of the Frocks!

Are you the type to go rustling about in a taffeta Frock with close-fitting waist and short puffy skirt? You are very much in luck, for the whim of Fashion smiles brightly on such.
But you are not especially favored since these equally lovely conceits of Canton crepe, Georgette and crepe satin grow bouffant or delightfully slim as you will. Platinum, gray, henna, brown, blue and black are very popular colors. The prices on these Frocks range from $39.50 to $135, and in many cases very special prices are made. (Third Floor.)

Hats Speak for Themselves

That is if they are so well chosen and so wonderfully effective as the groups to be found here. There is a pertness and an alertness about them that we so long for and so often fail to find. You'll be happy to find the clever "Cupid Junior" Hats for sale here. Tailored or flower or feather trimmed these gay ladies' chapeaux declare their charms for $10, $12 and $15. (Third Floor.)

Specially Offered for Saturday

THE week of apparel events has found the Misses' Store presenting the most desirable of Frocks and Suits at remarkably low prices. Saturday the efforts in this direction will be more than ever intensified.

Suits of most attractive cut and finest material are offered at $45.
Dresses for every occasion are to be purchased Saturday at the special prices, $39.75 and $45.

FILM CENSORSHIP BILL WILL DIE ON CALENDAR

Senate Resolution Provides Against Taking Up Measures
Not Favorably Reported.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The moving picture censorship bill will receive no further consideration at this session of the Legislature, but will die on the calendar as a result of the adoption this morning of a resolution introduced by Senator McCullough, providing that no bill not favorably reported by committee should be taken up by the Senate before adjournment.

No bill before the Legislature has been subject to more manipulation than the censorship measure, the Republican Senators from St. Louis joining with Senator Warner, owner of several picture theaters, in delaying action on it.

The Senate Tuesday night refused to pass the bill, the Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence having reported it adversely and rejecting Senator Hostetter's motion to engross it notwithstanding the adverse report.

House Bill in Committee.

The House bill on the same subject, which reached the Senate 10 days ago, has remained in the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee since March 9, although March 15 the committee voted to report it adversely.

Senator Whitcomb of Monroe County today offered a motion calling upon the committee to report the bill to the Senate. Senator Gray of Jasper opposed the motion on the ground that to bring the bill before the Senate would throw the body into a long debate which would delay adjournment.

Hostetter, who introduced the bill, declared the Senate and not the committee should act on it.

Consents to Postponement.
After a half hour's discussion, Whitcomb consented to a postponement until tomorrow. Blodgett contends that the committee, under the rules, has the right to retain control of the measure until Sunday which will be the next day after adjournment of the Legislature.

Immediately after Whitcomb's agreement McCullough called up his resolution against considering the bill, and it was passed.

The House yesterday refused to pass a resolution by Representative Dunlap of Daviess County calling upon the Senate Committee, which has held the House motion picture censorship bill for more than a week, although it has acted upon it, to report the bill out and declaring that the bill "should be given a fair deal." The House referred the resolution to the Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence.

Republican Floor Leader Morgan advised against passage of the resolution, declaring that the House by its unanimous vote in favor of the bill had served notice on the Senate that it wanted the bill passed.

MUSIC USED AS NERVE SEDATIVE IN ASYLUM

Psychiatrists Say Experiment Has Been Successful in Chicago.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CHICAGO, March 18.—Music to soothe the nerves of the insane long has been held a sedative by psychiatrists, but it remained for Dr. D. B. Rotman of the staff of the Dunning asylum to intern a noted musician and engage him to give concerts to the patients. Mollay Boguslawski is the musician. He does not dispense jazz, but the best of the classical school.

After two years of research Boguslawski claims remarkable results from the effects of music. Psychiatrists and health department officials as well as Chicago physicians are watching the experiments at Dunning. At each "music therapy" test, as Boguslawski has named his psychiatric process, Dr. Rotman of the hospital staff has collected data for presentation to the American medical profession for discussion.

"These experiments are the first of their kind ever conducted in the United States," said Dr. Rotman. "There is a universal potency to music; it appeals to the subtle elements of the mind. Patients long considered dull are aroused by this music to the expression of emotional display."

"I have studied this for two years," says Boguslawski. "Every musician will tell you how he has toyed with the emotions of an audience. It is because the minds of these poor people are tense and tightened that physicians have so often been unable to effect a cure. Music will break into the dark corners of the brain and allow the light to come in, and my experiments show I frequently am right. I don't claim to be able to cure insanity, but I can relieve much mental distress. Probably a third of the 120,000 insane in the United States can be greatly improved by 'music therapeutics.'"

Newspaper Resumes Publication.
BINGHAMTON, N. Y., March 18.—The Morning Sun resumed publication this morning, following its suspension March 4, and announced that its composing room would be open to any persons who desired to learn the printing trade or had knowledge of the trade and desired a position. The Binghamton Press caused a similar announcement in its morning edition last night. The printing planters remained firm today and continue to issue their organ, the Advocate.

IRISH RELIEF DONATIONS EXCEED EXPECTATIONS

Supply of 50,000 Tags and 35,000 Buttons Exhausted Early —Drive to Continue.

Collections in St. Louis yesterday for the Irish relief fund so far surpassed what had been expected that the supply of 50,000 tags and 35,000 buttons was exhausted before the day was over, and it was necessary to get others. No estimate of the actual amount was available, however.

The drive will continue over Sunday, and those managing it are confident that St. Louis and East St. Louis' combined quota of $100,000 will be exceeded. Collections are being taken in the parochial schools today. Public school children were given an opportunity to contribute yesterday.

Girls and women continued today to sell tags in theaters and moving picture houses, and a house-to-house canvass of the residence districts is being made. A number of large plants also will be visited today. Collections will be taken Sunday in the churches for the special benefit of the fund.

PLANS APPROVED FOR GARBAGE PLANT TO COST $175,000

Board of Public Service to Sponsor Ordinance to Build Incinerator at Foot of Mullanphy Street.

MEASURE DRAWN BY DIRECTOR HOOKE

Comptroller Nolte Says Money for Purpose Will Be Available—Method Declared Most Economical.

The Board of Public Service today approved an ordinance prepared by Director of Public Utilities Hooke, which provides for the expenditure of $175,000 to erect a municipal garbage incinerator on city ground at the foot of Mullanphy street.

As planned, this incinerator would be 65 feet wide and 130 feet long and would dispose of all the garbage of the city, about 50,000 tons a year.
The incineration plant is to burn the garbage and cinders together, the resultant product being a clinker, which Hooke says would make excellent road paving material. Cinders from the waterworks and other city plants would be used. The city now pays $3400 a year to have cinders hauled away from municipal installations. It also pays 16 cents a ton and freight charges to Guy W.
Caron to take city garbage to his hog farm at Summit, Mo.

Comptroller Nolte has assured Hooke that money will be available to build the plant if the ordinance is passed. President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service, today said incineration is now the most economical method of garbage disposal.
A blank form of contract to accompany the proposed ordinance specifies that the plant must be smokeless and odorless.

GEN. NIVELLE TELLS WHY FRENCH AND AMERICAN MARRIAGES FAIL

Says Brides Thought All Americans Were Rich and Husband Objected to Saving Money.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.
PARIS, March 18.—Although he has the greatest admiration for Americans and America, Gen. Robert Georges Nivelle does not believe in marriages between American men and French girls. He asserts in an afternoon newspaper that not more than 10 per cent of the Franco-American marriages contracted during the war have been successful.
"While American hospitality charms the traveler, American life is not generally pleasing to the French woman," declares the hero of Verdun. "Our young women who married American soldiers had the idea that all Americans were rich. So a French girl was much disappointed when her husband, out of khaki, returned to modest employment or to the farm."

"Moreover, the French brides did not realize the necessity of knowing English, and because of this lack they feel themselves cut off from the companionship of their husbands.
The French girls were ignorant also of the character of the American men. They found they preferred to live much away from home and that they refused to give their wives the thousand little attentions which, for a French woman, means so much."

"Then again, when the French wife tried to economize for the sake of the family, she met objections from her husband, who, as a rule, was accustomed to spend his earnings from day to day. In short, when a French man is called upon to live in Texas or the Middle West, she found herself hopelessly uprooted."

MOTHER OF NINE STRANDED TO DEATH BY ROBBERS IN HOME

Nurse Also Bound and Gagged in Brooklyn—Holdup Men Get $2500 in Jewelry and Money.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Mrs.
Henrietta Defeleo, mother of nine children, was strangled to death, and Mrs. Rosa Menditto, a nurse, was raged and bound by four holdup men who entered their home in Brooklyn late yesterday afternoon and demanded money and jewelry.
In trusting the two women, the robbers thrust a towel into Mrs.
Defeleo's mouth and to keep it in place they passed a rope around her face. One coil slipped down around her throat and was pulled so tight that it strangled her.

Mrs. Menditto, who was thrown on a cot in a room adjoining that in which the two women were sitting, rolled herself to the floor after the robbers had fled with $2500 in Jewelry and money. Loosening her gag by pushing her face along the floor, she staggered to her feet, pushed up the window with her head and called for the police.

$85,000 in Bank Loot Found.
NEW YORK, March 18.—Securities worth $85,000, identified as part of the $180,000 loot taken last month in the holdup of the People's Bank of Wyoming, Pa., were alleged by the police to have been found on a man giving the name of Harry Bernstein, who was arrested here yesterday with a companion in connection with the theft.

4 VAST GROUPS of SUPERIOR QUALITY EASTER SUITS SAVE MORE THAN 30% IN THIS BIG EASTER SALE.

Better qualities—better selections—better service—these three outstanding features, combined with a positive saving of more than 30 per cent, are adding tremendous momentum to the remarkable progress of this growing institution. Since the beginning of 1921 our business has grown to such a remarkable extent that we are now well on our way to our sales objective of $3,000,000 for the year. We know that St. Louis offers almost limitless opportunity to any firm that can surpass all competition in value giving and underselling. With this fact in mind, we prepared this, our greatest, merchandising effort. Right at the start of the new season we offer an almost bewildering array of men's and boys' fine apparel at lower prices than other firms quote at the season's end. Values, variety and volume of sales at minimum profits—that is our means of increasing business. Read the following offers—see them for yourself tomorrow—and remember, on each and every item you save more than 30 per cent.

9-YEAR-OLD BOY DROWNS IN THE RIVER DES PERES

Attempted Rescue Fails When Struggling Child Chokes Man Trying to Save Him.

William Merz, 9 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merz of 5243 Manchester avenue, was drowned in the River Des Peres about 300 feet south of the Oakland avenue bridge at 4:30 p. m. yesterday.

He lost his balance while running down the west bank of the river after a ball and fell into six feet of water. His brother, Frank Merz Jr., 11, called for help, and Clarence Lewis of 5101 Berthold avenue jumped into the river and caught William about the waist. The boy threw his arm about Lewis' neck and gripped it so tightly that Lewis was forced to release him to save his own life.

District Chief Juelg and Ladderman John D. Stratton of Fire Engine Co. No. 52, at Central and Clayton avenues, recovered the body. The bank at the point where the accident occurred is steep, owing to the presence of a public dump, and the water there is deeper than at other places along the stream.

PRESIDENT URGED TO PLACE EMBARGO ON FARM PRODUCTS

Western Senators Say Competition Is Keenly Felt in Wool, Hides, Meats and Butter.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—President Harding had under advisement today an appeal from Western Senators and Representatives that he place an immediate embargo on the importation of a number of farm commodities, including wool, hides, meats and butter, represented as most keenly affected by foreign competition.

When the request was made in conference late yesterday, President Harding, after being told that many producers in those lines faced ruin unless relief was forthcoming, indicated that he desired to confer with certain members of his Cabinet before acting on the appeal. Other products on the proposed embargo list were lemons, cotton seed oil and long staple cotton.

Adhering to its program for rushing through at the special session of Congress an anti-dumping bill, together with an added American valuation measure, possibly to be combined in one bill, the House Ways and Means Committee referred to Treasury Department officials today its resolution adopted yesterday, requesting them to frame a rough draft for its consideration.

BILL TO ABOLISH USE OF "PULLERS" BY STORES UP TODAY

Ordinance Aimed at Employees Who Accost Persons on Streets to Get Them to Buy.

A bill to abolish the practice of employing "pullers" to induce persons to enter stores where merchandise is sold will come up before the Board of Aldermen for passage this afternoon. It makes this practice a misdemeanor and provides a penalty of $25 to $100 fine. Its enactment would prohibit under penalty of the law any person on any street or sidewalk within the city from accosting any other person for the purpose of inducing them to enter a store to examine or purchase merchandise. The measure was introduced Nov. 12 by Alderman Wyrick, at the instance of the Associated Retailers of St. Louis, and was reported out favorably by the Committee on Legislation, Feb. 25. The measure is opposed chiefly by owners of a number of small stores in the vicinity of Franklin avenue, Morgan and Sixth street, and although it ordinarily should be voted on today, it is said a determined effort will be made to kill it in the committee by having it recommitted.

EXPLOSION AT HOME SHAKES TWO FAMILIES FROM BEDS

Occupants of Wash Street House Unable to Give Cause of Blast.

An explosion at the home of Antonio Sansone, 48 years old, 1007 Wash street, a fruit dealer, at 11:40 o'clock last night, shook Sansone, his wife and their five children from bed and shattered several windows in the house. Dominic Massario and his family, who reside on the second floor, also were jolted from bed, but no one was hurt. Windows in the residence of Samuel Noze, 1009 Wash street, and three windows in the store of the Morganthaler Dyeing and Cleaning Co., across the street at 1000 Wash street, were broken. The damage done by the explosion was estimated at about $100.

The explosion was heard at the Carr Street Police Station, a block away, and policemen hurried to the scene, but found no evidence of the bomb or any trace of the persons responsible for the explosion. Sansone said that he had no enemies.

Rent Profiteering Law Held to Be Void.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—Los Angeles' municipal anti-rent profiteering ordinance, designed to limit sums landlords might charge to certain percentages of their investments in houses and furnishings was declared unconstitutional yesterday by the Los Angeles County Superior Court. The ruling followed the recent issuance of an injunction enjoining the City Prosecutor from enforcing the ordinance.

HYDE EXPECTED TO PUT LABOR BILL THROUGH

Governor Revises Decision to Abandon Measures Not Already Passed by Both Houses.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—Gov. Hyde yesterday revised his decision to abandon that portion of his legislative program not passed by both houses up to noon yesterday, office seekers and Republican politicians urging him to assist upon the bill creating the State Department of Labor, at least.

It is now the expectation that the labor bill will be passed. The Governor, however, is taking no interest in the bill reorganizing the management of the penal institutions, along partisan lines, the bill consolidating the State Teachers' Colleges and the bill creating a State Building Commission.

He repeated to a Post-Dispatch reporter last night that he did not feel he could ask the Legislature to pass these bills, to which much objection has been raised, except as to the Building Commission bill, because, he said, the Legislature had given him so much in other measures.

The labor bill has passed the House and will be ready for passage in the Senate by tomorrow. The penal bill has passed the House and has been radically amended in the Senate, and the Teachers' College bill has passed the Senate.

When the penal bill was called up yesterday, Senator Irwin of Jefferson City, Republican, offered an amendment striking out the entire bill and substituting a new subject matter. Irwin's bill provides for the appointment of a board of five members, the chairman at a salary of $5000, the three commissioners at $2500, and one who shall be Warden and occupy the Warden's residence at $2000. Irwin provided qualifications for each of the members of the board, so wording them as virtually to compel the Governor to appoint Porter Gilvin, the present Warden, a member of the board, and reappoint J. Kelley Pool. Gilvin and Pool are Democrats. The Irwin bill provides that not more than three members of the board shall belong to one political party.

The Governor said last night that the Irwin bill was not satisfactory. The House today refused to concur in Senate amendments to the administration penal institutions consolidation bill, with little debate.

The present plan is for the Legislature to fix 4 o'clock Saturday as the sine die adjournment time. If this is done the actual adjournment probably will be Sunday morning, the clock being stopped at 4 o'clock Saturday.

JAPANESE NAVY ENGAGES BRITISH SEAPLANE EXPERTS

Importance Which England Attaches to Service Moves Far Eastern Nation to Build Air Fleet.

LONDON, March 18.—The increasing importance which British naval authorities attach to seaplanes and torpedo launching planes as indispensable auxiliaries of the modern battle fleet is underlined by the fact that the motive that inspired the Imperial Japanese navy to engage the best British seaplane experts obtainable here to build up that arm of the service, the Post-Dispatch learned today.

This mission is now being organized here under the direction of the Japanese naval attaché by a Scotch officer, Colonel, the Master of Semple (civilian Francis Forbes-Semple), who, during the war, was one of the high construction experts of the British Air Ministry.

He said the fact that Japan picked British seaplane experts for the job was perhaps explained by the unhesitating claim of the Air Ministry officials that Great Britain leads the world in the development of the naval seaplane.

It is an undoubted fact that, though the British Admiralty sticks to the battleships as the backbone of the fleet, British naval flying experts are going confidently ahead developing huge "sea-going" fleet seaplanes which they firmly believe will be absolutely necessary to protect the battleships of the future from enemy aircraft and, more important still, which they believe will be able to knock out enemy battleships.

The greatest handicap to this development, they admit, is the limited appropriation for experimental work. Though the Air Ministry had to refuse Japan's request for an official mission the fact that all the members of the "unofficial" mission will be former British officers undoubtedly means that the British Air Ministry and admiralty will get the full details and the benefits of whatever advances in seaplane construction and tactical operation this organization develops in Japan without cost to Great Britain.

REPEAL OF CITY UNION LABOR ORDINANCE EFFECTIVE TODAY

Board of Public Service Preparing to Ask for Bids on Street and Sewer Construction.

The repeal of the so-called union labor ordinance, which provided, among other things, the payment of the prevailing or union wage scale to city employees, is effective today.

THREE AMERICANS WOUNDED IN EXCHANGE ON MEXICAN BORDER

Firing in Night Across Line Continues Three Hours—Party Believed to Have Been Smugglers.

By the Associated Press.
EL PASO, Tex., March 18.—United States soldiers and immigration officers are patrolling the Mexican border near here, where from 10 o'clock last night until 1 a. m. they exchanged shots with a party believed to be Mexican smugglers.

Three Americans were wounded.

The Mexicans opened fire on three American immigration officers who discovered the Mexicans fording the Rio Grande, which is about 50 yards wide at that point. The return fire of the immigration officers apparently wounded one of the three Mexicans wading the river, and was immediately answered by riflemen concealed in bushes on the Mexican side.

Five more inspectors and 100 soldiers of the Forty-eighth Infantry from El Paso responded to a call for assistance and for more than an hour the firing continued briskly.

The three Americans wounded were Private M. J. Koller, D Company, Forty-eighth Infantry, shot in left arm and scalp wound; Private Petroski, shot through hip, believed serious, and Joseph Thomas, immigration inspector, scalp wound.

VETERAN POLICEMAN INJURED BY AUTO

John Dugge, 71, on Duty in Lafayette Park for Many Years, Struck When Hailing Car.

Patrolman John Dugge, 71 years old, of 2523 California avenue, who for many years has been on duty in Lafayette Park, was injured seriously at 10:15 o'clock last night when struck by an automobile driven by William H. Inman, 42, of 2830 Caroline street, at Mississippi and Lafayette avenues. At the city hospital the policeman was said to have suffered a fractured left arm, scalp wounds and internal injuries.

Dugge is on duty in the park between 2 and 10 p. m. He had just completed his rounds and had called the station from a patrol box at the southeast corner and stepped into the street to hail a street car when Inman, driving east in Lafayette avenue on the north side of the street, struck him.

Boy, 7, Knocked Down by Auto Driven by Physician.

Lawrence Kersie, 7, of 217 Geyer avenue, suffered scalp wounds and bruises at 8 p. m. when knocked down by an automobile driven by William R. Gum, a physician, of 2502 Missouri avenue, at Broadway and Lafayette avenue. Police were told the boy started across the street and in the center stopped and darted back toward the sidewalk and directly in the path of the doctor's automobile.

Allen Cavenagh, 5, of 2211 North Market street, suffered internal injuries, cuts and bruises at 5 p. m. when knocked down in front of her home by a truck driven by Jacob Baker of 1904 Franklin avenue. The child had run into the street after a ball and was stooping over to pick it up when struck.

Steven Capasio, 71, of 1949 Semple avenue, a street cleaner, was struck by an automobile driven by Clyde Shipley of 1401 Clinton street, at Twelfth and Pine streets. He refused medical attention, insisting on continuing his work.

John Walker, 17, of 2025A Division street, a negro, suffered a fractured leg when knocked from a bicycle by an automobile at Twenty-first and Wash streets. Later Thos. Viviano of 829 Carr street visited the Carr Street Police Station and said he was driving the machine that injured the boy. He said he had stopped for a car and the boy ran his bicycle into the automobile. He was not held.

ANTI-REVOLVER BILL PASSED BY SENATE WITHOUT OPPOSITION

Measure Prohibits Carrying Concealed Firearms Without Permit From Circuit Clerk.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The antirevolver bill, originally introduced in the Legislature at the request of Sam Allender, former Chief of Detectives of St. Louis, was passed by the Senate last night without opposition. The bill has also passed the House, and with the Governor's signature becomes a law.

The bill provides a penalty for carrying concealed firearms without a permit, issued by the Circuit Clerk. A fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5000, with a week in jail or year in prison, is provided in the act.

It forbids hardware dealers to sell revolvers that "do not have stamped upon the metallic portion of the weapon the trade mark of the manufacturer, the manufacturer's name, model of the weapon and serial factory number."

Persons who are compelled to carry revolvers may do so after obtaining the approval of the Sheriff and then getting a permit from the Circuit Clerk. The bill was presented to the Legislature by Senator Anderson of St. Louis.

Foreign Diplomats Received.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 18.—For the first time since the United States entered the war, the White House yesterday was the scene of a reception to the Diplomatic Corps. The President and Mrs. Harding received their guests, numbering about 250, in the Blue Room. Secretary and Mrs. Hughes, Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Fletcher and Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Bliss of the State Department attended the reception.

What Do You Do With Your Coat When the Trousers Are Worn Out?

Sell it to the old clothes man? It's a hard job to match the coat, which is still good, with old trousers without looking like a misfit.

Months ago when the makers needed ready cash the clothing experts of our combined stores selected these fine woollens, chose the trimmings, the linings, the styles and watched the making so that when finished they would compare with the finely tailored Suits usually found only at much higher prices. In fact, in every point of workmanship, trimmings, linings, the way the seams and buttonholes are sewed—these Suits represent the best efforts of America's finest tailors. And every Suit has 2 pairs of pants—this we know will be the big hit of the season.

TWO-YEAR TERMS FOR ATTEMPTED BRIBERY

Two Men Plead Guilty to Jail Delivery Plot at Union, Mo.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
UNION, Mo., March 12.—George F. Carroll and Charles R. Cupp of Uniontown, Pa., pleaded guilty in the Franklin County Circuit Court here yesterday on charges of attempted bribery to bring about the release of prisoners, and were each sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Breuer. This is the minimum sentence, the maximum being five years.

Carroll is a brother of John W.
Carroll, who, with Charles Jacoby of St. Louis, was sentenced to death by hanging for the murder of Benjamin Schobe on Nov. 20 last. Walter Shirer of St. Louis was sentenced to life imprisonment for the same offense.
They were tried last December and two weeks before the trial Cupp and George Carroll were arrested after a negro youth serving as watchman at the jail, said they gave him $200 to allow the escape of the three men charged with murder.

The negro was Ross Henson, 18 years old, and he turned the bribe money over to Sheriff Gehlert, who arrested George Carroll and Cupp as they were leaving a picture show one evening. Carroll's mother has been here a great deal of the time since her sons were arrested and had long conferences with attorneys before George pleaded guilty. Cupp is married and has three children, one of whom was born while he was in jail here.

John Carroll and Jacoby are at the St. Louis city jail pending appeal of their sentences to the State Supreme Court, and Shirer is at the penitentiary.

DAILY PACKAGE CAR SERVICE FROM ST. LOUIS TO MEXICO CITY

Route Established Over Cotton Belt
by St. Louis Interests Expected to Increase International Trading.

By the Associated Press.
DALLAS, Tex., March 12.—The first through daily merchandising car ever operated from St. Louis, Mo., to Mexico City, has recently been established. A package car service, initiated by St. Louis interests and the Cotton Belt Railroad, leave St. Louis each night traveling via Cotton Belt lines to Waco, San Antonio and Aransas Pass to Allen, Tex., and Texas-Mexican route to Laredo, thence via National Railways to Mexico City.

The new package car route through Missouri, Arkansas and Texas is 2000 miles long, and is the first officially adopted since the Mexican reconstruction period began. This service, it was said, will mean much to international trading, as Mexico is a fertile field for Southwestern manufacturers.

St. Louis, Little Rock, Memphis, Shreveport, Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco and other important distributing centers, it was forecast will take important steps to increase the trade of the Southwest with Mexico.

BEAUTY CANNOT BE

If the complexion is marred by blemishes.

It is also a well-known fact that beauty cannot be if the complexion is in any way marred by pimples, dark, sallow discolorations, therefore, if you suffer any of these skin blemishes, begin at once the use of Black and White Ointment.

Realizing the need for such a preparation, the manufacturers of Black and White Ointment have made sure that their preparation meets all the necessary requirements of a real skin beautifier.

Black and White Ointment gently massaged on the face just before retiring, then washed off the next morning with Black and White Soap, will make the skin clear, smooth, delicately tinted, and remove all skin blemishes.

A trial will convince you and you will better understand the popularity of Black and White Ointment and Black and White Soap.

MISS MIRIAM BENOIST TO BE MARRIED APRIL 16

Will Wed Lieut. Commander P. N. Belling of U. S. Navy at St. Louis Cathedral.

THE wedding of Miss Miriam Benoist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Benoist, and Lieutenant-Commander Patrick N. Belling will take place April 16, at the St. Louis Cathedral. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Father Wood of South Carolina, an old friend of the bridegroom, at a nuptial mass at high noon, 12 o'clock. Miss Benoist will have as her bridesmaids Misses Anne Hunt, Marie Baker, Elizabeth Benoist and Katherine Robinson and Carolyn Nash of Washington. There will be no maid of honor. Commander Lee Warren, U. S. N., who was stationed in St. Louis at one time, will serve as best man, and the groomsmen will include Maj. Sanford, U. S. Army, and Ensign Wilson. Miss Benoist, sister of the bride, the three other brothers of the bride, Hunt, Theodore and Francis Benoist, will be ushers.

A small reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, 4522 Pershing avenue. Commander Belling and his bride will spend their honeymoon at Earlehurst, Va., and will reside in Washington.

Social Items

Mrs. John W. Harrison of 5371 Waterman avenue, will depart March 26 for Pittsburgh to be present at the wedding on March 30 of her son, James Eads Campbell, and Miss Hedy Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Steele of Pittsburgh. The ceremony will take place at 5:30 o'clock at the William Penn Hotel. Miss Pamela Harrison will be maid of honor and Stuart Harrison will attend his brother as best man. The couple will reside in Memphis, Tenn. Among the St. Louisans who will go East for the wedding will be Harry Blackwell.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Haase and Judge John W. Calhoun will be solemnized at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening by the Rev. Dr. Dodson at the bride's home, 3523 Longfellow boulevard. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Walter Haase. Her gown will be of white satin embroidered in seed pearls, with a court train of satin lined with silver cloth. A tulle veil will be worn with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The ceremony will be followed by a reception. After a honeymoon trip the couple will reside temporarily at the bride's home. Miss Haase was educated at Mary Institute, Miss Bennett's school, in New York, and at Washington University. Judge Calhoun resides at 3204 Geyer avenue.

Miss Frances Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Ryan of 3844 Westminster place, has chosen April 14 as the date of her marriage to Elmer Hauldren of Chicago. The ceremony will take place at 9 o'clock at the College Church and will be followed by a breakfast at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker H. Woods of 6248 Washington boulevard will entertain March 28 with a tea dance at their home in honor of their daughter, Miss Helen Martha Woods, who is a student at Mary Institute. There will be about 50 guests. Miss Woods will have as her guest during the Easter holidays her cousin, Miss Eugenie Harris of Indianapolis.

Miss Adelaide Simons of 6254 Arundel place will have as her guest for two weeks Miss Sue Williams of Booneville, who is expected to arrive Monday.

Mrs. Theodore C. Link of 628 Spring avenue is expected home April 1 from Biloxi, Miss.

The marriage of Miss Ella Louise Link and Robert Yeager Woodward will be solemnized April 18 in the parlors of St. John's Methodist Church. Miss Katherine Link, sister of the bride, and William Woodward, brother of the bridegroom, will be the only attendants. Miss Link is the daughter of Mrs. Karl E. Link of 5428 Clemens avenue.

Miss Julia Williams of Dallas, Tex., and Miss Margaret Woodcock of Baltimore were the honor guests at a luncheon yesterday, with which Mrs. Mildred Orr Boston entertained at her home, 609 Clara avenue.

COURT ORDERS A STILL RETURNED TO OWNER

Illinois Federal Judge Rules Dry Agents Must Have Federal Warrant to Seize Property.

Judge Louis Fitzhenry in the United States District Court at Springfield, Ill., yesterday, ruled that prohibition enforcement agents could not legally confiscate whisky or stills unless armed with a search warrant issued by a United States Commissioner and setting forth a description of the property to be seized. A search warrant issued by a Justice of the Peace is not legal, he said. The decision was in the case of Joseph Kelch of Granite City, charged with having whisky in his possession in violation of the Volstead law, and at the conclusion of the case the court ordered the District Attorney to return to Kelch the whisky and a still which had been taken from the basement of his home by the enforcement officers.

This was the first time the point in question was ruled on in Illinois and followed the decision attorneys representing other defendants charged with the same offense filed motions that the cases be dismissed on the technicality offered by Kelch's attorney, J. M. Bandy of Granite City.

Attorneys pointed out that the ruling might have an important bearing on the case of S. Glenn Young, a prohibition enforcement agent, who is charged with murder in connection with the death of Louis Vukovic of Madison, who was shot by Young in a raid on Vukovic's home last Nov. 7. It was recalled that Young had no search warrant issued by a United States Commissioner when he raided the Vukovic home. The case is pending in Judge Fitzhenry's court.

GIRL TAKES POISON ON CAR

Pauline Strode, 19 years old, of 4348 Dolman street, swallowed several poison tablets when on a Jefferson Barracks car en route to the city early today. At the Broadway loop she was placed in an automobile and taken to the city hospital. Her condition is serious.

She told the police she had visited the barracks last night with a man whose name she furnished. He lives, she said, near 9900 South Broadway, and she said he refused to accompany her home, insisting on getting off the car near his home. She was despondent, she said, because of his action and swallowed the poison. The girl lives with her mother, Mrs. Katherine Strode, a widow.

SAYS CRIME IS ENCOURAGED

Head of Bar Association Deplores Lax Law Enforcement.

Francis M. Curlee, president of the Missouri State Bar Association, speaking last night before the St. Louis Association of Credit Men at the City Club, said that law enforcement in this country was so lax that crimes and criminal careers were actually encouraged.

"We have the laws, but 'red tape,' parole systems, continuances of cases and the splitting away of witnesses conflict with justice," he said. He outlined methods of foreign countries in dealing with crime, and said that in many countries death is the penalty for crime. He also warned against the spread of radicalism in this country, and urged that every possible means be used to stop the dissemination of radical theories.

LEGISLATOR SEEKS $20,000 DAMAGES FOR BROKEN NOSE

Maurice Rothschild Alleges He Was Absent Three Weeks After Being Hit by Jacob Slupsky.

Maurice Rothschild, 4633 Westminster place, a member of the Missouri Legislature, today filed suit for $20,000 personal damages against Jacob Slupsky of 5529 Pershing avenue, on a charge of assault on Feb. 5, in which, he alleges, he suffered a fracture of the nose which has permanently disfigured him and which prevented his attendance at the Legislature for three weeks.

Rothschild told a reporter the altercation grew out of Slupsky's criticism of the Hotel Claridge management, following the collapse during construction of a glass and iron canopy extending over the sidewalk from the building to the gutter. Rothschild is interested in the hotel, which is at Eighteenth and Locust streets. Slupsky could not be reached for a statement.

DOCUMENTS TAKEN IN BANK BURGLARY FOUND

Two Boys Discover Papers Stolen Feb. 8 From Safe Deposit Boxes at St. Clair, Mo.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
UNION, Mo., Feb. 18.—Practically all of the bonds, stock certificates, deeds, notes, abstracts and other valuable papers taken in the burglary of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of St. Clair on Feb. 8 have been recovered. Two boys found the pile of documents uncovered in a field near the Manchester road late Wednesday. They brought them here yesterday and turned them over to Sheriff Gehlert.

Eight men were arrested at a cabin on the Meramec River near Pacific a few hours after the burglary and $12,352.67 in cash, thrift stamps, registered bonds, postage stamps and other valuables were recovered in a sack hidden in the attic. Two of the eight men were sentenced this week to 35 and 40 years, respectively, in the penitentiary on the charge of burglary.

The remaining six men are to be tried at a term beginning May 2 and the recovered documents will be used as evidence.

Albert and Christ Hellmann, each about 15 years old, sons of a farmer, found the documents. Apparently they had not been greatly damaged.

HOBBIES EXPLAINED AT DINNER FOR MEMBERS OF HOBBY CLUB

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, March 18.—It was explained at the home of William Osgood Field, when he gave a dinner to 30 members of the Hobby Club, what a hobby is.

Each of the 38 members of the Hobby Club has a different hobby. And, strange as it may seem, they do not include golf, baseball, football, fishing, yachting or hunting or other sports.

Archer M. Huntington makes books his hobby. His library is probably the largest and most valuable in this country. The other members, including Stuyvesant Fish, John G. Milburn, Herbert L. Pratt, David W. staff, Henry P. Van Dusen and Albert Gallatin, prefer paintings, sun dials, autographs and coin collections rather than the popular sports of the day.

Field spoke last evening on bookbinding. He has made bookbinding a study for years. By his method, magazines and weekly publications are made to look like the rarest old book.

The Hobby Club was formed in 1912. The meetings, which are impromptu, are held about every four months at the homes of members.

When one has something new to discuss in the way of his favorite hobby, a meeting is called and a dinner is given at his home.

PLUMBERS' UNION AGENT HELD ON $30,000 BOND

James C. Shawen Charged With Assault to Kill Plumbing Contractor.

James C. Shawen, 29 years old, of 629 North Eleventh street, East St. Louis, business agent for the Steamfitters' Union of East St. Louis, today was released on $30,000 bond following a preliminary hearing before Justice Brady at East St. Louis on charges of assault to kill.

Shawen was arrested following an assault by eight men on March 19 on Michael J. Kickham, 34 years old, of 564 North Twenty-fourth street, East St. Louis, a master plumber, and Roy E. Roberts, a helper, while they were at work in the basement of a building at 231 Collinsville avenue, East St. Louis. Both men were badly beaten.

Six other men are held at the County Jail at Belleville awaiting trial. The assault is said to have been the result of difficulties between master plumbers and union plumbers in East St. Louis.

JUDGE TELLS MAN TO END LIFE

Suggestion Made in Sentencing of Drug Addict.

By the Associated Press.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., March 18.—In sentencing John Pirtle, who had pleaded guilty of selling morphine and to having large quantities of drugs in his possession, Federal Judge Benjamin Bledsoe said yesterday:

"You would better commit suicide. You haven't the will power to stay away from using morphine, once you have received the cure. I am going to sentence you to the Federal penitentiary, where you will receive the cure. If you can't keep away from morphine after that you will be an economic menace and better off dead." Pirtle was sentenced to serve a term of three years.

People Come Hundreds of Miles to Buy Furniture

Few St. Louisans know that St. Louis is a good furniture market. The Prufrock-Litton Furniture Company, at Fourth and St. Charles streets, sells and ships furniture to nearly every state in the Union.

Today and Saturday they are offering many special bedroom, diningroom and livingroom suites at ridiculously low prices.

WOMAN, 81, FOUND DEAD, GAS ON Sheet, Forming Tent Over Head, Found Hanging From Gas Jet.

Mrs. Anna Kleisner, 81 years old, of 2519 Indiana avenue, a widow, was found on the floor of her bedroom at 8 o'clock last night. A sheet, forming a tent over her head, was suspended from a partly open gas jet. Mrs. Rose Walther, her granddaughter, told the police Mrs. Kleisner went to the room at 4 p. m. to rest. When she did not come downstairs in the evening, the granddaughter investigated and found her on the floor. Doctors who were called said she had died apparently from gas poisoning.

Four Americans Reported Drowned.
MEXICO CITY, March 18.—The four American sailors reported to have been killed March 11 at Tampico, following an attack of five masked men, are declared in Tampico advices yesterday to have met death by drowning, and not through violence.

10 PER CENT INCREASE IN HORSESHOERS IN ILLINOIS

J. W. Follmer of the Illinois Department of Registration and Education, who is attending the meeting of the Illinois Veterinary Association at East St. Louis, says the horse and mule are coming back. Last year he says, there was an increase of 10 per cent in the number of registered horsehoes in the state.

The reason, he says, is that many small farmers who bought tractors and trucks have found that horses and mules are more economical than tractors for farming on a small scale and that they are more economical and more dependable for hauling short distances over Illinois roads.

CHECKING CHARGES REDUCED

Union Station Prices Return to Pre-War Level.

The charge for checking hand baggage and parcels in the checkrooms at Union Station will be reduced on April 1, from 15 cents to 10 cents. That rate is for a 24-hour period. The lower rate was charged before the war and the increase then was attributed to increased cost of operation.

Last December the Post-Dispatch inquired about the charges, following complaint by a reader, and it was said the charge of 15 cents was considered reasonable. Many complaints have followed since the Chamber of Commerce requested the reduction. President Miller of the Terminal Railroad ordered it.

WEBSTER WOMEN NAME
A SCHOOL CANDIDATE

Men Wait Outside During Session and Then Meet and Nominate a Man.

When about 100 Webster men went to the High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock last night to hold a mass meeting and endorse school board candidates, they found about 350 Webster women filling it, and were told to wait outside until the women decided whether they wanted two women candidates or one, and if one, which one.

The men waited an hour while the women decided whether they would endorse Mrs. M. P. McArdle and Mrs. W. P. Rumsey or one of them and if one, which one. Mrs. McArdle had been picked by the League of Women Voters and Parent-Teacher Association, and had been endorsed by a number of other organizations. Mrs. Rumsey had been picked by the Monday Club.

Two School Board vacancies were to be filled, and the women's idea was that a man and a woman should be elected. If the women concentrated on one woman they could elect her. If they scattered on two they might elect neither. So they decided to concentrate.

Mrs. McArdle was nominated by Mrs. Louis W. Lacy of the League of Women Voters and the Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. Rumsey was nominated by Mrs. S. Klein-Schmidt of the Monday Club. Mrs. McArdle received 192 votes and Mrs. Rumsey 90. Some of the women were so neutral that they did not vote.

The doors were opened and some of the women went home, making room for the men. Probate Judge Hodgdon was chairman. John A. Nolan nominated S. T. Honig and Alfred C. Wilson nominated C. G. Halzlip, both members now, for reelection. The nominators said there was important work ahead, a men's job, and the women could wait.

A. V. Lashly contended that only two should be endorsed, according to custom, and as the women had endorsed one, the men should endorse only one.

Nolan argued for naming two men and letting the voters make their own selection.

Mrs. Fred Plant said the women had named only one woman with the understanding that the men would name only one man. If the men were going to name two men, she was going to nominate Mrs. Rumsey, so that there would be two women as well as two men. Other women talked the same way. The vote, however, was taken on Mrs. McArdle, Honig and Halzlip. Honig received 271, Mrs. McArdle 270 and Halzlip 198.

PRESIDENT URGES INCREASED EFFICIENCY IN FEDERAL SERVICE

Harding Tells Committee of Employees There Is No Place for the "More Office Holder."

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—There is no place in the Federal service for the "more office holder," President Harding told the executive committee of the National Federation of Federal Employees, which he received yesterday at the White House. The President urged increased efficiency and interest in duty on the part of Government employees, adding that in this way Government workers would best obtain increases in salaries.

Mr. Harding also told his visitors that he and the members of his Cabinet gladly would co-operate with Federal employees in working out their problems.

Through Luther S. Steward, president of the federation, the committee presented a statement to the President outlining what it regards as the essential means to the achievement of improved employment conditions and greater efficiency in the Government service. These include reclassification and reorganization of the civil service and the establishment of a national budget system.

MARRIAGE CONTROVERSY ENDED

By the Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—The controversy in Episcopal Church circles here over the performance of a marriage ceremony by the Rev. Baker P. Lee for Alfred I. du Pont, millionaire powder manufacturer of Wilmington, Del., who had been divorced, and Miss Jessie D. Ball of Los Angeles has been brought to a "satisfactory" conclusion, according to a statement made public here.

The statement was signed by the Rev. Mr. Lee and Frederick C. Valentine, chancellor of the Episcopal diocese of Los Angeles. It contained this declaration: "The marriage of Mr. du Pont and Miss Ball by Mr. Lee was legal and from all evidences submitted to him, he felt canonically justified in performing the ceremony. An explanation was courteously given by him to the Bishop (the Right Rev. J. H. Johnson), courteously received, the Bishop was satisfied and the matter satisfactorily closed without a trial."

WOMAN IN HYSTERICS AT HOTEL

Police are seeking to identify a woman described as about 30 years old, who was found in a semi-conscious condition last night in a room at the New Charleston Hotel, 5 North Eighth street. At the city hospital she was said to be suffering from hysteria. Policemen who visited the hotel were told the woman, accompanied by a man about 50 years old, with a gray beard, appeared at the hotel Wednesday night. The man explained the woman needed rest and asked that she be assigned to a room. He paid for the room and departed. Last evening, when employees of the hotel failed to get response to their knocks at the door of the woman's room, they entered and found her unable to make a connected statement. The woman is 5 feet 3 inches tall, has black hair and eyes, and wore a blue dress and black velvet hat.

LEWIS SAYS MINERS WILL FIGHT ANY ATTEMPT TO CUT WAGES

Unions Said to Have Contracts With Present Scale Effective Until March, 1922.

By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, March 18.—Any attempt to reduce wages of coal miners in the United States will be resisted by the miners' union, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared today in announcing such a policy had been approved by the union's Executive Board, now in session here.

The union miners, it was said, have contracts at present wage scales that continue until March 31, 1922. Mines in Washington State, it was said, have shut down because of the miners' refusal to accept reduction to the wage level of Oct. 31, 1919, or approximately 25 per cent. Lewis' statement said:

"The proposed reduction in Washington will not be permitted. The present agreement will have to stand until it expires by limitation. The same action has been taken regarding proposals for reductions in Southeastern Kentucky and Tennessee. The agreement will be protected with the full force of the United Mine Workers."

HOUSE PASSES APPROPRIATION FOR SURVEY OF WATER POWER

Children's Code Inspection Bill Is Passed With One Amendment.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The House yesterday passed a bill, previously passed by the Senate, to appropriate $20,000 for a survey by the State Bureau of Geology of the water power resources of the State.

A bill by Senator Irwin of Cole County to relieve corporations of filing an annual affidavit that they have complied with the State anti-trust laws, was indefinitely postponed upon motion by Representative Bristow of Mercer County.

Another by Senator Hostetter, which also had passed the Senate, and which increases from $5 to $10 the fee paid by embalmers to the State Embalming Board, was passed.

A bill of the children's code, to require inspection by the State Board of Charities and Corrections of maternity hospitals, was passed after being amended so as to bring St. Louis under its provisions. This bill will have to go back to the Senate for action upon the amendment. The St. Louis Senators are understood to be opposed to the amendment, holding that the city ordinance for this inspection are more drastic than the State law would be.

HYGIENE BILL PASSES SENATE

Measure Provides for Physical Training in Schools of Cities.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The Senate today passed the physical education bill providing for the teaching of hygiene and health habits and for the appointment of a State physical director and physical directors for schools of cities throughout the State.

One section requires that each public school teacher must have a physician's certificate of good health and freedom from contagious diseases. The purpose is to extend throughout the State the St. Louis system of hygiene in the schools.

HIRSCH PERSONALTY $125,569

An inventory of the estate of Marcus A. Hirsch, filed today, described personal property valued at $125,569. He died May 19, 1920, and his will bequeathed his entire estate to his widow, Mrs. Viola R. Hirsch of 5922 Waterman avenue. The property consisted chiefly in stock in the Hirsch Rolling Mill Co.

In his will, filed some time ago, Hirsch acknowledged indebtedness to his wife in the sum of $65,000 for money he had received.

VIOLINIST OBTAINS VERDICT

FOR $1500 AGAINST U. R.

Ellis Levy, 4573 McPherson avenue, violinist and member of the Symphony Orchestra, yesterday obtained a jury verdict in Circuit Judge Davis court for $1500 against the United Railways Co. on account of an injury to his left hand inflicted by a street car motorman. The suit was for $50,000.

The injury to Levy happened two years ago. His automobile and a street car had been in collision at Boyle avenue and Olive street and the motorman was obtaining information when, it was alleged, he violently grabbed hold of Levy to recover a memorandum pad.

DAWES' TESTIMONY 'BEST SELLER'

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Congressional authorities agree that Charles G. Dawes of Chicago is the author of the Government Printer's "best seller." The supply of copies of his testimony before the House War Investigating Committee, it was learned today, has long been exhausted, yet demands still pour in by every mail. Everybody, including dignified members of the Senate, sought to read the lurid remarks of Gen. Pershing's former purchasing chief in the original. They were unaware, apparently, that the official blue pencil had operated on the "damns" and "hell-and-murders" and similar illustrations Gen. Dawes employed. A new edition will be necessary, it is said.

Certificate to Operate Road.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 18.—A certificate of convenience and necessity, authorizing operation of the Illinois Southern Railway by the Missouri-Illinois Railroad Co., was issued by the State today. Under the new management the road will run from Salem, in Marion County, to Kellogg, in Randolph County, and across the river to Bismarck, Mo., by ferry.

MADE ENOUGH FLOUR TO FEED U. S. FOR A YEAR

Minneapolis Miller Retires After a Continuous Service for 46 Years.

By the Associated Press.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 18.
—Ranking as the champion flour-maker of the world, John Kraft, who retired March 1, after continuous service for 46 years, holds the unique record of making enough flour to feed the entire population of the United States and its possessions for a period of one year. Because of impaired vision, Kraft, who is 69 years old, terminated his connection with a local flour company after establishing a record which milling engineers believe will stand for many years.

Engineers at the plant estimate that during his 46 years of active service, Kraft made 138,000,000 barrels of flour. According to the veteran miller, an average normal person consumes about one barrel of flour a year or its equivalent.
Kraft's output, therefore, could feed the population of the entire United States and its possessions, which is approximately 115,000,000, and at the end of one year have a large surplus.

Expressed by milling engineers, the stupendous amount of flour milled under Kraft's eyes would, if placed in barrels end to end, extend around the world three times; would cover every square foot of the surface of Minneapolis with flour six inches deep, and if loaded for shipment, would require 460,000 cars or 15,300 average trains.

Kraft has been a head miller for 28 years, and during this time has had three mills under his supervision.

Born in Schlotzau, Germany, Jan.
12, 1852, he came to this country when 20 years of age. It was not until he had resided here three years that he obtained employment in the mills.

Beginning at the bottom as a sweeper, he gradually worked his way up through various stages of smelter, machine tender and grinder. He was made a head miller in 1882. Five years later he was in charge of three mills. In 1908, however, with advancing years, he relinquished his authority over two of them.

During his long period in the flour milling profession, Kraft has seen it revolutionized. While a worker in the mills he witnessed the replacing of rolls for the old millstones, new purifying methods, and the installation of dust collectors. Also, the former head miller has watched the mighty growth of the village to which he came in 1872 to a large city known throughout the world for its flour mills.

USE OF CONCRETE IN BUILDING OF HOMES BEING CONSIDERED

Contractors, Architects and Prospective Builders Attending Course of Instruction.

The use of concrete in the construction of homes is being considered by contractors, architects and prospective home builders at a course of instruction being conducted by the Portland Cement Association at the David Rankin Jr. School of Mechanical Trades, 4420 Cook avenue. The course opened at 9:30
a. m., today, and will continue until noon tomorrow.

Some of the subjects selected for discussion are the rehousing of Hal-fax in concrete after the great explosion in 1917, the construction of concrete homes for industrial workers, building codes and their effect on home building, architectural effects and relative costs.

It has been pointed out that with a housing shortage in the United States conservatively estimated at 2,000,000, and with the marriage rate exceeding the rate at which homes are built, there is urgent need for considering the merits of every available building material with hope of stimulating home building.

LIQUOR FOUND UNDER FLOOR OF EDWARDS STREET HOME

Occupant of Residence and Son Arrested—Eight Gallons of Disappearance of $2000 From Trunk.

Eight gallons of what is said to be "moonshine" whisky and five gallons of alcohol were found beneath the floor of the home of Joseph Catalano, 48 years old, at 2322 Edwards street, when Special Policemen White and Holden visited the home in search of liquor, following the receipt of an anonymous letter last night.

In the kitchen of the home the policemen reported finding four copper tanks with tops and coils attached, but empty. They were near an unlighted gas stove. No mash was found in the place.

Catalano and his son, Dominick, 28 years old, of 2322 Cook street, who was also in the house, were arrested. At this juncture, the father opened a trunk in the home and declared he had been robbed of $2000 in cash that had been in the trunk.
The policemen, searching the trunk, found $45 there which they took to the station along with the prisoners.

Washington Park for Venezuela.

By the Associated Press.
CARACAS, Venezuela, March 18.
—A Government decree gave the name of Washington to a national avenue and orders the building of a new park to be called Washington Park, in which the statue of Washington will be placed. The old Washington Park will be named after Henry Clay, and the ceremonies incident to the naming of the two parks will be held on April 19, the day the statue of Bolivar, the famous Venezuelan statesman, is to be unveiled in New York.

Typical American "Shirt-Sleeve" Drama Falls Short of Being Literature, Says British Critic

Shallow Souledness of Character in "Ham and Eggs" Plays; William Archer, However, Finds Merit in Many Plays.

This is the third of a series of articles by Mr. Archer, who is one of the most noted of British critics, on the state of the stage in America. Succeding articles will appear in the Post-Dispatch.

By William Archer.

TEN or fifteen years ago it used to be said that the American theater excelled in "shirt-sleeve" plays, leaving the full-dress play, the drawing room comedy or drama. Today a new symbol has been found for the same phenomenon, and we are told that "there is too much ham and eggs in American literature"—and, a fortiori, in American drama.

As regards literature, the reproach seems paradoxical. The flavor of ham and eggs in such books as "The Age of Innocence" or "Three Black Pennies" cannot be called overpowering. As for "Main Street," it is a study of farm and eggs from the point of view of a fierce distaste for that staid diet and a somewhat artless acceptance of other culinary ideals. When one thinks of the "romantic" literature of England during the past half century—of the Ouidas and the Barclays, the Caines and the Corellis—one feels that ham and eggs are not the wholesome fare that it is easy to jump out of the trying pan into the fire.

On the stage, however it is unquestionably true that the play of "un-ideal" and somewhat unmanly domesticity bulks so largely as to be perhaps the typical produce of American drama. That little five-roomed "home" which we saw rising from its foundation in Frank Craven's "Too Many Crooks," and of which we take an inside view in "The First Year," by the same author, is perhaps the most considerable contribution of the American stage to dramatic literature. And the odd thing is that as one writes the word "literature" one knows it to be misplaced.

Are Not Literature.

These shirt-sleeve, ham and egg plays—which shade off into the comedy of business life, such as "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," "The Meanest Man in the World," "Potash and Perlmutter," "Crooked Gamblers," etc.—while full of observation, humor, character, spirit and movement, can be called "literature" only in the sense of a more accurate term. Why is this? There is certainly quite as much ability in them—as much sense of the stage and knowledge of the world—as in many of the more pretentious plays to which we readily accord the rank of literature, with whatever qualifications (such as "third rate" or "ephemeral") we may think appropriate. Where, then, does the distinction between literature and merely competent craftsmanship come in?

If I may hazard a theory on a point which I admit to be difficult, it is that the minds of the writers (or manufacturers) of these plays are "subdued to what they work in," like the dyer's hand. They have no external vantage ground, no larger philosophy of life. They paint Main Street from the point of view of a denizen of Main Street, alert and humorous up to a certain point, but acclimated and acquiescent. It is noteworthy that most of these plays are the work of actors. They are written (in so many words) by actors, and the spoken word is written word. They over-luxuriate in slang and the vernacular of the hour.

Good Slang Is Useful.

Slang is an excellent thing in its way, and to American slang in particular the English language is deeply indebted. But there is what Sinclair Lewis calls a "gutter patois," a "Boonville dialect," to which the term "slang" is misapplied. It is mere ignorant slovenliness of speech, combined sometimes with a yielding to the obsession of certain words, which may be picturesque and valuable in their original meaning, but come to be employed in every second sentence, where they have no meaning at all. Shakespeare gave us an example of word-obsession in Corporal Nym and his "humors," and Corporal Nym is, without exception, the most tedious character in Shakespeare. One is tempted to pretend that such an incident is outside the domain of art; but one may fairly suggest that the overabundance of words, the overabundance of the human spirit which is held to be one of the functions of dramatic literature.

"The First Year Is Good." None the less is "The First Year" a most entertaining and admirable piece of work. The characters of the father and uncle are delightfully drawn, and if the comedy of the young wife in the second act seems silly beyond belief, that is perhaps only because I have no personal knowledge of the type. One is tempted to throw all considerations of style and distinction to the winds and declare such dramatic homespun as this more valuable than all the silk and brocade of the "comedy of manners" which cumbered the stage for two centuries.

In "Miss Lulu Bett" we come to a play of the same class, but standing on a distinctly higher level. We have

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF
There is one sure way to never fail to remove dandruff, and that is to dissolve it entirely. To just get about four ounces of common liquid arvon from a store (this is all you will need) at night when retiring, enough to moisten the scalp, it is gently with the finger tip. By morning, most if not all dandruff will be gone, and four more applications will dissolve and entirely destroy single signs and trace of it, no how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching, itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be fluffy, glossy, silky and soft, and feel a hundred times better.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Making St. Louis Clean.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Patriotic citizens of St. Louis should make St. Louis a clean city. The dirt in the air here is one of the biggest factors in the failure to secure a million population. Men locate where their womenfolk are contented. No woman would willingly come to live in a place where curtains must be washed once a month and where the wear and tear on every article from cleaning alone is a tremendous expense.

That old excuse that all large manufacturing cities must be dirty does not go now. Science has provided smokestacks and also the oil-run engines that the railroads could be forced to use within the city limits.

Every piece of property should have a garbage incinerator alongside of the asphalt, and thus do away with the unhealthy garbage wagons coming through the streets.

Cleaning concerns and laundries will object to the smoke-consumers, and those who have contracted for the disposal of garbage will object to incinerators. Also property owners will not like the expenditure for these improvements, but, from the beginning of time, all progress has been secured over difficulties and always enjoyed after the benefits are felt.

ONE WHO LOVES ST. LOUIS.

"One and Inseparable."

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

In your column, "American" expresses his doubt as to whether Ireland should be given her independence because she is so near to England. Is Ireland any nearer to England than Belgium is to Germany? In the late war Belgium proved a thorn in the side of Germany, yet who in all this world (except the late Kaiser), would think of denying Belgium her freedom because of her nearness to Germany?

He further states that if Long Island should demand to be a republic, we should refuse. Well, did we, as a nation, ever conquer the people of Long Island and force them to submit to foreign rule and domination for centuries, as England has done Ireland?

He also quotes the words of Lincoln in regard to our nation as one and indivisible. But would "American" endorse the words "one and indivisible" in regard to Russia, Austria and Germany, after they had absorbed the State of Poland, 150 years ago, in what one historian calls the "greatest crime in history"? Yet this is an exact parallel to how England has conquered and absorbed Ireland.

FAIR PLAY.

The Bagworm.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

The suggestion of the Forestry Committee of the Woman's Chamber of Commerce to employ the Boy Scouts to rid shade trees of the bagworm by snipping from the branches is impractical. It would be like harvesting a field of wheat, the burning of the stalks, and the use of a pair of scissors. The City of St. Louis should own a number of power spraying machines and the street and park trees should be sprayed with a standard arsenical mixture. Every practical forester knows how and when this should be done. Unfortunately St. Louis seems to be short of this kind of help. The web caterpillar and its nest are destroyed by anyone. Not with a torch of cotton, as suggested, but with a torch made of an old wool rug saturated with oil. The burning is done either very early in the morning or late in the evening, when the worms are in the nest. If done at any other time, only the web is destroyed and the worms, which are out feeding, will soon weave another nest. Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and dozens of other cities employ trained foresters to care for the trees. St. Louis should have a practical man for city forester, and each of the larger parks should be in care of such a man.

G. A.

Police and Constitution.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Our zealous Police Commissioners, in their bid for recognition, have let it be known that the prohibition laws are going to be enforced "as written," and if the public don't like it, let them change the law. That is a very commendable determination on the part of the police, but "as written" does not give them authority to violate the national Constitution. It does not give them the moral right to make the enforcement of the prohibition laws paramount to every other duty. Is it reasonable and just to the public to use the police force as dry enforcement agents and neglect the more important duties of protecting life and property from the criminals that should have a practical man for city forester, and each of the larger parks should be in care of such a man.

Meanwhile, robbery, assault and murder is done while the efforts of the police are diverted to the detection and punishment of people made criminals by a vicious law, and to the regulation of the morals and amusements of citizens.

E. H. C.

THE ISSUE.

In the beginning of the mayoralty campaign the issue between Mayor Kiel and Mr. Byrnes is clearly defined. It was emphasized in the addresses of the two men yesterday before the members' conference of the Chamber of Commerce.

This issue is politics vs. business in the city hall. Mr. Byrnes declares unequivocally that he is a non-political candidate and stands for a business administration, without regard to politics. He is deploring his campaign to a discussion of municipal business and is pledged when elected Mayor to devote his whole time, capacity, energy and large business experience to municipal business—to the elimination of spoils, waste and extravagance in municipal expenditures and the application of every dollar of the taxpayers' money to municipal needs. He promises to get a dollar's worth of return in goods or services for every dollar expended.

One of his most important pledges is to use all his power as Mayor to compel public utility companies to fulfill their obligations to the city and to obtain adequate and rapid transportation at cost. Mayor Kiel has neglected this great service to the people. He has conceded everything to the United Railways and has conducted listless, losing fights with all the public utilities before the Public Service Commission. He is evidently bound up with them, but despite his assertion that the Mayor can do nothing, we assert that intelligent, sincere, energetic effort on the part of the Mayor can do much; can go far in the protection of the public from unjust charges and oppressive methods; can go far towards getting adequate service at reasonable cost.

On the other hand, Mayor Kiel is bound to a political administration. His biggest achievement during his eight years of office in the mayoralty is the building up of a political personal machine to perpetuate himself and his political adherents in office. His machine is one of the political wonders of the country. Its thoroughly organized workers are all over the city, guarding and repairing the Mayor's political fences and keeping voters in line for the Mayor and his henchmen. The machine is always busy card-indexing the voters and keeping them in line for election day.

A political machine costs money. The work it does to keep the voters in line must be paid for. Who pays the bills? The City of St. Louis pays the bills. The organizers and workers of the machine are supported by the taxpayers of St. Louis. They are on the city's payroll and draw their pay for political work while incidentally filling the offices and jobs in the municipality. The office holders are selected primarily for their political influence and usefulness and secondarily for their fitness and industry in office or in the city's employment.

Whatever Mayor Kiel may say with regard to his intentions, he is the servant of his machine. As Mr. Byrnes aptly remarked in his letter, the Mayor's machine "was built up with patronage and is held together with spoils." It must be oiled and greased and kept running. Its organizers and workers must be satisfied. Places in the city's employment must be found for the men who do the Mayor's political work in the wards and precincts.

Mayor Kiel depended upon his machine to get him the nomination for his third term. It worked like a clock. He depends upon it for his election for the third time. No money or effort will be spared to gain this end, because the interests of the machine bosses and workers depend upon the Mayor's re-election. But in the event of his re-election the interests of the machine must be taken care of. Its lien on the municipal government is a first lien. The rewards of political work on behalf of the Mayor must be paid, regardless of public interests. There will be a riot of spoils in the city hall.

As Mr. Byrnes pointed out, the Mayor's political administration has brought the city's business into a ditch; it has caused a deficit of over $800,000, despite the past four years of prosperity, high taxation and large revenue. Nor is this the whole story. For a year 5 cents of the tax rate previously devoted to the sinking fund was turned into the general revenue to meet the growing cost of political administration—of machine business in the city hall. With a continuation of machine politics in the year years what will be the deficit? When the sinking fund must receive its full tax rate, what will become of the general revenue and how will the necessary municipal expenditures, not to speak of improvements, be met?

The Mayor, by his building up of a political machine, has an organization to perpetuate himself and his friends in office, but what have the people of St. Louis got? A municipal plant run down at the heels with inadequate hospital and other elementary accommodations and shell-holed streets, resembling, as Maj. Barngrove aptly said, the trenches in Flanders. Set over against the work begun by his predecessors, which Mayor Kiel has finished perforce, and the things that his administration began—the whole accomplishment of his eight years of office—against the things the Mayor promised but failed to do and the things the city needs which have not been touched—the record is deadly. Then consider, in the light of the big things necessary to be done to make St. Louis a growing, livable city, the growing deficit. What chance has St. Louis, with politics enthroned at the city hall?

Shall St. Louis have a political boss and a political administration or an independent Mayor and a business administration? That is the issue.

BRITAIN BREAKS THE ICE.

In the conclusion of a trade agreement with the "Government of the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic" the British Government has sacrificed conservatism and ignored "the meaningless rhetoric of blind hatred" to satisfy a vital expediency.

By this agreement, which still requires the sanction of the Commons, Britain gains a field of trade which, whatever its impediments, is of vast extent. She gains the prospect of alleviating her unemployment and strengthening her finances, both private and public. But quite as appealing is the promise of the Soviet Government, secured by the new trading privilege, not to agitate or encourage agitation against British interests, especially in the Asiatic sphere.

If Britain, in this unprecedented leap, is really making any sacrifice in policy or principle it remains to dissenters to show specifically why and how. No Government in recognizing another takes upon itself the sins of that other. And in the present agreement the respective Governments do not come to a diplomatic speaking acquaintance. They merely agree to permit the flow of natural economic currents which would be of mutual benefit to their respective peoples.

As to the political expediencies, practically every authority with an intimate knowledge of present Russian conditions testifies that the Moscow dictatorship maintains its power to crush rebellion by swinging the bludgeon of starvation. The allied policy of nonintercourse certainly has been given full trial and has failed either to relieve the Russian people or to weaken their masters.

It remains to be seen what practical effect will ensue from the new arrangement—whether or not the removal of Government barriers will accomplish anything while difficulties of finance and exchange persist. If Great Britain is seen to gain by the experiment other nations will not be long in swallowing their scruples and getting into line.

MISSOURI IN A NEW LIGHT.

Appropriating $300,000 for continuing the Capitol decorations puts Missouri in a new light. This is the opposite of hound-dogism—a fine and courageous thing with which the Legislature has placed Missouri fairly in the rank of civilized states. It is to be hoped that Gov. Hyde will display equal courage and foresight by signing the bill, and that from this almost unexpected facing about Missouri may come into its new acclaim as fast as the decorating can be done.

To Senator Kinney, who had charge of this bill in the Senate; to Representative Turbett, who handled it in the House; and to all those members of the Legislature who from time to time befriended its progress, Missouri owes more than any of those who labored for the appropriation or voted for it can at this time realize. The advertising potentialities of that appropriation in ways creditable to the State and advantageous to her among other communities are beyond calculation. Some indication of what they will become has been afforded by the acclaim the State has already received from the expenditure made under the original appropriation of $100,000, though less than half the art bought with that money has been delivered and placed.

Fortunately, there was a unique opportunity to decorate the Capitol without going into competition with other causes, and the people who have "fathered" the decoration saw and seized it. The State has a Capital tax of 2 per cent upon the $100 valuation for the retirement of the Capitol building bonds. The last of these, which require $300,000 a year from this fund, will be retired in 1925. It is the excess which accumulates above the $300,000 required each year for the bonds that is going into the mural paintings, sculpture, mosaic glass and tapestries with which the Missouri Capitol is to be made one of the most beautiful and interesting public buildings in the United States. The Missouri Supreme Court has held that this money cannot be used except on the building. What nobler use, or what use more certain to be applauded by posterity, could be made of it?

The rate at which the Legislature is grinding out bills on the $1-a-day wage is a splendid vindication of the sweatshop system.

THE EXPERIENCED MR. KIEL.

Mayor Kiel made a talk to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday which might easily elicit a flippancy or playful riposte from the thoughtless. But to our penchant for considering the solemn utterances of statesmen with gravity, sometimes with tears, the philosophy of our Mayor calls for ponderous consideration.

The Mayor's philosophy can be compressed into few, but memorable, words. It is this: Once an officeholder, always an officeholder. To be sure, this is not exactly in rapport with what President Harding delights to call the "wisdom of the founding fathers." But those old fokes, as they are frequently designated, though men of admirable intention, were really unsophisticated. They were, so to speak, boobs. They dreaded life tenure in office and even a third term, simply because they did not appreciate the value of experience. Right there is where Mr. Kiel has got it all, over the founding fathers.

Having been Mayor eight years, Mr. Kiel declares that he is pre-eminently the man for the place. Facing an audience of business men, as he was on this auspicious occasion, he tried to make himself intelligible by talking their language. Suppose, he said, any one of you chaps were hiring a man to manage your business. Whom would you employ? Somebody who promised to choke you with dividends? Mr. Kiel brought his hypothesis to a snappy conclusion by insisting that the tired business man would hire somebody with experience. Never mind about what kind of experience—business or political.

Continuing in this frank, though diffident, style, Mr. Kiel admitted that it would take his opponent eight years to reach the degree of capacity at which Mr. Kiel has arrived. And if that's the way Mr. Kiel feels about it now, what will be his state of mind should he serve another term? With another four years would Mr. Kiel dispense with the quadrennial mayoralty election altogether? He permits us to indulge the folly of trying to out him now, but will he be so tolerant after 12 burgomasterly years?

It looks as if Fritz Scheff were determined to wear the mantle of Nat Goodwin.

HARDING'S DOVE CAGE.

It is true that our greatest problem is the farm, then let us turn our wondering gaze to North Dakota. The farmers of North Dakota attempted to free themselves from the clutches of the predatory interests which preyed upon them. They were farming as hard as they knew how and not making anything out of it, though plenty of other people were enriching themselves on what they produced. What followed the dash for freedom in North Dakota has become more or less historic. If you read about it, you have the story flavored by the prejudice of the writer. There may be exceptions to this, but let us tell you of our own experience: We have sought diligently to make out what is happening in North Dakota. We have not been able to find anything but propaganda from both sides. Out of this we have to sort what seemed to us probably true. We will tell you what that is: The farmers of North Dakota very soon found themselves in a world pretty much owned by the people who were preying upon them. They had thought themselves alone somewhere out in the prairie, and free to govern themselves. They know better now. They have found that North Dakota is geographically where they thought it was, but economically it is in Wall Street. Wouldn't that make a farmer open his eyes? It has opened the eyes of North Dakota. They see a lot up there that is really beyond the horizon. Anybody may see the same thing.

A few years ago the picture painted for us by James E. Smith would have seemed to most of us here in the Mississippi Valley an absurdity. Thanks to the census reports and other indications that we are slipping, it is not so much of a dream today. Homer could see across the Mediterranean by comparison with us. We have been blind enough to let the river, which made us fall into decay. Mr. Smith has believed in the river all the time; but most of us have looked on from Laodicea. There are no industrial centers in Laodicea. There are no big cities. You don't know where it is, and even if we would have to look it up.

THE INSCRITABLE.

IS IT to our reason just
 That virtue yield to brutish lust?
 Is it to the senses right
 That honor give way unto might?
 Is it well that sin should be Triumphant o'er divinity?

I stand here and gaze upon
 The glory of the coming dawn;
 And see the power of human greed
 Upon earth's helpless thousands feed:
 I see the mixed and struggling throng
 Trodden 'neath the heel of wrong.

I see the tyrant's iron hand
 Desecrate a ravished land;
 I see the conqueror walk abroad—
 I see his red and dripping sword—
 And ask my soul, "Can it be well,
 That man should make of earth a hell?"

Cities fall before the flame—
 Innocence defiled by shame:
 The warrior, with his banners red,
 Marching o'er the butchered dead,
 While babes and mothers shriek and rail
 Along the armies' smoking trail.

Must I look on this human strife
 And glorify the source of life?
 Should I gaze on this world disgrace
 And seek the Great Creator's face Regarding not the powers that be Oblivious of humanity?

THE SUBCONSCIOUS.

I THOUGHT he was dead and buried forever—
 The old Indian in me—
 For over his deeply interred remains
 Had accumulated the soil of civilization—
 Heavy layers of conventions and customs—
 And on top of him I had piled Ponderous chunks of religion, philosophy, science,
 And covered all with the fibrous turf
 Of sundry solemn obligations
 No monument marks his resting place
 Nor even the slightest mound:
 Level it is with the surrounding commonplaces
 And there is not the faintest indication That here lies buried a primitive Indian.
 But now, in my old age,
 The cemented savage resurrects himself—
 The turk heaves and breaks up—
 I see his head-feathers emerging.

Will he presently shake himself loose
 And sound his long-silent warwhoop
 And flourish his ugly tomahawk
 And for an enemy's scalp go hunting?
 Or will he sadly tread the remnants of the rest.

Lamenting the earth's abominable condition,
 Lamenting the joys he had with departed

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

THE COLOMBIAN TREATY.

From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S first disagreement with his former colleagues in the Senate over the question of ratifying the long pending Colombian treaty. The President asked prompt action in order to clear the decks for a resumption of friendly relations with Colombia. The Senate postpones consideration until the later session. The Colombian treaty is an aftermath of the Panamanian revolution and the construction of the isthmian canal. On the theory that Theodore Roosevelt gave improper aid to the revolutionists, thus depriving Colombia of an important state, this measure was devised to reimburse her for the wounded sensibilities and to reimburse her for the loss sustained. Roosevelt retired from the presidency 12 years ago, but the remnant of the Roosevelt influence in the Senate is what blocks acceptance of the treaty now. At first framed the treaty, besides paying Colombia $25,000,000 for her injured feelings and granting preferential treatment for her trade across the isthmus, expressed "sincere regret" on the part of the United States "that anything should have occurred to interrupt or to mar the relations of cordial friendship" between the two Powers. The "apology" was later eliminated. Ratification was repeatedly urged by President Wilson, President Taft endorsed its principle and now President Harding urges its acceptance by the Senate. Roosevelt, however, insisted the treaty be a reflection on their favorite. They may be expected to oppose ratification under this administration as vigorously as they did under the last one. Whether the treaty be accepted or finally rejected, the issue ought to be definitely cleared up one way or the other. Continuation of the present do-nothing policy merely irritates all our South American relations.

THE HASTE OF THE ALLIES.

From the New York Times.

THE haste of the Allies in the Entente advance into Germany was political in its nature is strongly indicated by the fact that the action is precipitate, so far as demanded under the treaty.

It was agreed at Versailles that the findings of the Reparations Commission should be "concluded" and notified to the German Government on or before May 1, 1921. The words "on or before" may authorize extreme action now, but 40 days must still elapse before it could become in any sense mandatory under the treaty. In interpreting the formal language of diplomatic papers the commission is certainly a useful. Article 233, quoted above, puts upon the commission the duty of scheduling payments to "discharge" the entire obligation within 30 years from May 1, 1921. Article 234 directs the commission, "after May 1, 1921," to consider from time to time the resources and capacity of Germany, and change the date or form of payment, "but not to cancel any part, except with the specific authority of the several Governments represented upon the commission." Three times in half a page May 1 is thus named as the decisive date in fixing reparations. The natural reading of "or before" in Article 233 would be an intent to postpone many of the terms fixed in time for discussion before May 1. Nothing in the treaty could lead the world to expect troops to move into Germany on March 8. When in a case where action is delicate and so momentous that he delayed for six weeks, it is taken at once, no explanation is so plausible in itself or so well fitted the facts as political opportunism, in which M. Briand and Mr. Lloyd George are masters.

Peers Adopt Resolution Declaring Discipline of Empire Disintegrating and Nation's Prestige Impaired.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, March 18.—Riotous scenes were enacted at a meeting of the Kintai-Kai, or opposition party, which had gathered here yesterday to discuss a sensational open letter written by Secretary Hirooka of the Kintai-Kai party, charging Viscount Kato, president of the Kintai-Kai, with accepting a bribe. The meeting was attended by 10,000 persons, and when Representative Tomezaburo Shimizu attempted to speak, a dozen men rushed forward and demolished the platform. The police were forced to intervene, making many arrests.

After the meeting had broken up, a crowd, headed by two automobiles, marched toward the Diet building, which was surrounded by two columns of police, with hundreds of reserves in nearby streets and parks. The correspondent of the Associated Press sought to traverse this district, but was politely requested to take another street.

Having arrived in the vicinity of the Diet building, the crowd was harangued by leaders, who spoke from automobiles. The throng was urged to break through the police cordon, and cheering cheers burst forth, but police reserves were hurled to the front, and the demonstrators were forced to retreat. Their leaders were arrested.

Meanwhile there was greatest excitement within the Diet. The peers unanimously adopted a resolution proposed by Ren Nakashoji, declaring that discipline of the empire disintegrating, the minds of the people are in a state of unrest, the nation's prestige abroad impaired and general conditions deplorable. The resolution asserted that it was desirable to speedily rectify prevailing evils.

Amidst turbulent scenes, the House of Representatives discussed a resolution sponsored by the Kintai-Kai party, censuring the Government for the scandal regarding the South Manchurian Railway. It was the prevailing opinion here today that the Government is confronted with a serious crisis.

LONDON PAPERS DISCUSS THE EFFECT OF LAW'S RETIREMENT

Times Says Resignation Probably Will Materially Weaken the Coalition Government.

LONDON, March 18.—A political crisis of the first magnitude has been created by the retirement of A. Bonar Law from the British Cabinet, it is declared by the London Times. Other newspapers, however, are more optimistic, saying that Bonar Law's resignation is certain to have considerable political effect, and that it probably will materially weaken the coalition government. It is pointed out that no successor to Bonar Law is likely to work so well with Prime Minister Lloyd George, and the Graphic even suggests that if Lloyd George is called upon to face a prospect of unsympathetic association, he may find the strain of office intolerable, and will follow Bonar Law into retirement.

Suggestions have been made in some quarters that Lloyd George himself take command of the Unionist party, which constitutes the bulk of his forces in Parliament.

Bonar Law is a widower, and lost his two sons in the war. An intimate friend played chess with him Wednesday evening, and suspected him on Thursday morning ordered him to quit work, or face the gravest risks. He will leave for the Riviera by sea, possibly today, accompanied by his daughter, and will remain abroad a couple of months.

Many Attend $25-a-Plate Dinner for Irish Relief; Coler One of Speakers

Public Welfare Commissioner of New York City Reviews Island's Struggle for Independence and Predicts It Will Be Attained.

There was a large attendance last night at the St. Patrick's day dinner at the Jefferson Hotel under the direction of the American Committee for Relief in Ireland. The dinner cost $25 a plate.

The principal speaker was Bird S. Coler, Commissioner of Public Welfare of the city of New York. Short addresses were made by John S. Leahy, Mayor of New York, and Dr. R. Emmet Kane and Shoppey Barclay. Con P. Curran was toastmaster.

Irish music was played and the dinner frequently joined in singing Irish songs.

Among those at the speakers' table were Archbishop Glennon, Monsignor Tanrath, the Rev. P. J. O'Rourke and other representatives of the Catholic clergy. The room was decorated with American and Irish colors.

John S. Leahy, in introducing the toastmaster, spoke of love as the dominant trait in the Irish character and said that Ireland is entitled to the sympathy of the United States because every nation has the right to decide who its rulers shall be.

Mayors of cities in a brief address said he was a firm believer in self-determination for small nations and that America should hold out a helping hand to any nation which wished to pattern after the American Government.

James W. Byrnes in his speech referred to St. Patrick as "that patron saint from the greenest spot on God's footstool; that advocate of liberty and freedom." He devoted the greater part of his brief speech to praise of the high quality of American patriotism.

Coler made a strong plea for aid for the sufferers in Ireland, saying that until the time arrives when the British Ministry will come to the senses, it will be the duty of those who can afford to help the hungry and despairing to abate somewhat the bitterness and the woe and go to the relief of the Irish people.

Coler's address in part. After outlining the high moral qualities of the Irish people, and recounting how Irish Bishops carried the message of the humane spirit of the South Manchurian Railway. It was the prevailing opinion here today that the Government is confronted with a serious crisis.

SENATE VOTES FOR FREE BRIDGE TAX EXEMPTION TREATY

Resolution Provides for the Negotiation of an Agreement Between Missouri and Illinois.

PASSAGE BY HOUSE ALSO EXPECTED

Binds St. Louis to Maintain Bridge Free for Reciprocal Use—$22,000 Taxes Paid by St. Louis Last Year.

By the Associated Press.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The resolution proposing a treaty between Missouri and Illinois, exempting the Municipal Free Bridge at St. Louis from taxation, was passed by the State Senate this morning. It now goes to the House, and must be passed by the Illinois Legislature to become effective.

The resolution, which was drafted by Associate City Counselor Hamilton of St. Louis, was introduced by Senator Blodgett of St. Louis. Last year the city of St. Louis paid $22,000 to East St. Louis in taxes on the free bridge.

A similar resolution, negotiating a treaty between Missouri and Kansas, by which municipal property in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., was exempted from taxation, passed both branches of the General Assembly Wednesday. This resolution inspired the measure from St. Louis, which was introduced today.

The Hamilton bill binds St. Louis to maintain the bridge free for reciprocal use by Missouri and Illinois. It also provides for the payment of $22,000 in taxes by St. Louis last year.

The Free Bridge Treaty. The treaty, in full, follows: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, the Governor concurring therein, that:

"Whereas, the city of East St. Louis, in the county of St. Clair, in the State of Illinois, and the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, are contiguous, but the boundary of said county of St. Clair, in the State of Illinois, and the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, is a broad and navigable stream;

"Whereas, in order to afford a road and passageway between the city of East St. Louis and the city of St. Louis, a bridge has been built and maintained by the city of St. Louis, known as the municipal free bridge;

"Whereas, the maintenance of said bridge as a highway is of mutual interest and advantage to the city of East St. Louis and the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri;

"Whereas, the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri, has agreed to maintain said bridge free for reciprocal use by the city of East St. Louis and the city of St. Louis, in the State of Missouri;

Polish Papers Incline to Expression of Political Views Rather Than News Gathering

Principal Journals Small and Controlled by Political Parties; Description of Americans Getting Election Returns.

By Arthur Ruhl.

THE Warsaw newspapers are little journals of opinion and argument in the French style, rather than big news journals like our own. They represent, as so many of the Paris papers do, some political group or personality, and are supported by a party rather than by advertising. They are, in other words, not so much news businesses as cartfalls or platforms from which the editors deliver each day their personal harangues.

What they lack in news—or in that chronicle of accidents and eccentric happenings, which, in American papers, often passes for news—they make up in the variety of their political opinion. There is not the same variety on a Warsaw newspaper as there is on a Paris newspaper, where you may choose any sort of view you wish, from the monarchical L'Action Francaise to the almost Bolshevik Populaire, but a good deal of variety, nevertheless.

The Rzeczpospolita (Republic), the Kurier Warszawski (Warsaw Courier), and the Gazeta Warszawska (Warsaw Gazette) are all conservative papers. They advocate a two-chamber national Parliament with a Senate composed of more or less conservative elements and are opposed to the Chief of State being Commander in Chief of the army.

To that extent, at least, they are opposed to Pilsudski, who holds both the office of President and the office of Commander in Chief of the army. The Warsaw Gazette is the official organ of the National Democrats, a "bourgeois" party which, although less influential than it used to be, contains some of the ablest men in the country, and the Warsaw Courier, which has a large number of readers, is also close to the National Democrats.

"Paderewski's Paper." The Republic is a new and enterprising journal, sometimes spoken of as a "Paderewski paper." It prints simultaneous editions in several cities outside the capital. The painter Ivanowski, a friend of Paderewski, who will be recalled here for the picture of Maude Adams as "Peter Pan" which he made for the Century Magazine a few years ago, has taken an active interest in the pushing of this paper, and while its position toward the radical papers will be determined by events, naturally it could be counted on during the autumn vigorously to come to the defense of the planist-state.

The Kurier Poranny is generally regarded as a "Pilsudski paper," and the Chlodnik is inclined to be rather intemperate in its language, and during the excitement over Gen. Zelinski's adventure (the seizure of Vilna from the Lithuanians) it printed vicious attacks on Paderewski, who was representing Poland in Paris, and having an exceedingly embarrassing time of it explaining away allied objections to Zelinski's frankly lawless performance, without infuriating opinion at home.

U. S. INSISTS THAT PANAMA ABIDE BY TREATY TERMS

Message Asks for Immediate Compliance With Provisions of White Award in Boundary Dispute.

REQUESTS TRANSFER TO COSTA RICA

Suggestion Made Panama Arrange "Without Delay" for Appointment of Engineers to Carry Out Work.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Firm insistence that Panama immediately comply with the provisions of the White arbitral award in settling its boundary dispute with Costa Rica was made by the United States in the note dispatched to Panama by Secretary Hughes early this week, the text of which was made public here yesterday.

Provisions of the treaty under which Panama and Costa Rica agreed to submit to the arbitration of Chief Justice White their disputed boundary on the Atlantic side of the Panama Canal, were cited by this Government in support of its contention that the jurisdiction of the arbitrator had not been exceeded in the award as claimed by Panama in its recent note to the State Department.

The United States Government further insisted on the observance by Panama of the previous award on the Pacific side made by President Loubet of the French Republic in 1906 and which, it declared, "unequivocally accepted" by both Panama and Costa Rica in the Porras-Anderson treaty of 1910, the sacredness of which over the territory boundary was submitted to arbitration by the American Chief Justice.

"Obligations Not Fulfilled." "Notwithstanding this fact," the note stated, "The Government of Panama apparently has taken no steps to fulfill its obligations to recognize the territory on the Costa Rican side of that line as subject to the jurisdiction of the Government of Costa Rica, but has continued to exercise jurisdiction over the territory beyond that territory until the present time.

"This Government considers it to be its unavoidable duty to request the Government of Panama at once to take steps to confirm the boundary line from Punta Barica to a point in the Central Cordillera north of Cerro Colorado, near the ninth degree of north latitude, by relinquishing its jurisdiction over the territory on the Costa Rican side of that line, as defined by the Loubet award, and transferring such jurisdiction to the Government of Costa Rica in an orderly manner. It is to be observed that this is in the territory belonging to Costa Rica that Cato is situated.

Refer to Panama Note. The United States, the note stated, has received with "deep concern" the statement in the Panama note to this Government that the "action taken by the Government of Panama in retiring its military forces from Cato" should not be interpreted in any case as an implied recognition of the award," covering that territory.

In order that the boundary line laid down by Chief Justice White may be defined "physically and in a permanent manner in accordance with the findings of the award," the American Government urged that Panama arrange with Costa Rica "without delay" for the appointment of a commission of engineers to carry out this work "as provided for by the terms of article 7 of the Porras-Anderson treaty."

Press reports at the time the American note was dispatched to Panama construed this request for the appointment of a boundary commission as opening the way for readjustment of the White section of the boundary award in Panama at once to request for a physical definition of the line as provided for in the arbitration treaty.

Support Terms of Treaty. In taking issue with the claims of the Panama Government that in rendering this award, which incorporated the line laid down on the Pacific side in the Loubet award, the American Chief Justice had exceeded the jurisdiction vested in him by the treaty, the American note said: "The Government finds no basis for the contention that the arbitrator exceeded his powers and his award, according to the express terms of the Porras-Anderson treaty, became a perfect and compulsory treaty between the high contracting parties and both Panama and Costa Rica bound themselves to its faithful execution and waived all claims against it.

NEAR-CENTENARIAN STILL IN PULPIT

Rev. W. N. Norment Has Been Pastor of One Presbyterian Church for 63 Years.

WHITEVILLE, Tenn., March 18.—The Rev. W. N. Norment, who has been pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church here for 63 consecutive years, is believed to be the oldest preacher in the world. Although nearly the century mark, he moves about as actively as many men of 60 and bids fair to preach for several more years.

When he first took charge of the congregation the country was very thinly settled and the howl of the wolf was often heard. The elders that called him to the pastorate have long since passed away. Many who were baptized by him in their infancy are now bent with years.

Mr. Norment was educated at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn. Only a few of his class survive. He visited Andrew Jackson at his home near Nashville and can still give an interesting account of the personal appearance and home life of the hero of New Orleans.

Gen. Jackson said to him: "You are a great calling, young man—yes, a great calling indeed."

William J. Bryan said in an address here a few years ago: "I have talked with Brother Norment and find him to be the most remarkable old man I have ever met. The scenes of three score and 10 years ago are told by him today with just as fresh a memory as had they occurred but yesterday."

"The reason I have been able to hold my same work through these many years," Mr. Norment says, "is that I have tried to preach Christ to the people."

REPUDIATION BY COSTA RICA

Concession Held by British Involving Potential Oil Fields Not Recognized.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—A concession involving approximately 7000 square miles of potential oil fields in Costa Rica, granted by the old Tinoco Government and held by British interests, has been repudiated by the new Costa Rican Government.

Advices to the State Department say the Costa Rican Congress on March 7 voted, 24 to 10, against recognizing this act of the Tinoco Government. The concession originally was obtained by Amory & Sons, an American concern, and subsequently sold to the British interests, reported to include the son of the British Premier, Lloyd George. Neither Great Britain nor the United States recognized the Tinoco Government, but they have recognized the new Government. Since extending recognition, Great Britain, according to the advices, has undertaken to enforce the claim, bringing pressure to bear and threatening trade retaliation. It was said today at the State Department that the American Government had taken no action with regard to the concession.

College Endowment Campaign.

By the Associated Press.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., March 18.—Joseph R. Harker, president of the Illinois Woman's College, announces that the college has opened a campaign to raise a half million dollar endowment and improvement fund. Two years' time is given. The General Education Board of New York City has offered the college $133,833 on condition it raise the remainder of the $500,000.

BILL FOR TWO MORE JUDGES IN ST. LOUIS PASSED BY HOUSE

Forrest of St. Louis, attorney and Republican political ally of City Collector Koeln, immediately behind the St. Louis delegation, aiding in directing the efforts of Davidson. Forrest insisted that he had no interest in the judges bill.

Smith, in the course of his opposition to the bill, made a series of speeches at both the afternoon and night sessions, declaring that the additional judges are not needed, that the city officials are opposed to the measure and that the whole thing is a "political graft."

At the night session he asserted that "two gentlemen have been up here campaigning for this measure and these jobs and have already applied for them. The city government of St. Louis does not want this bill. And why is the whole Senate and the Lieutenant-Governor over here lobbying for this bill?"

Representatives Manning and Bittner, also of St. Louis, spoke briefly for the bill at the night session. Elgel having spoken in its behalf in the afternoon.

Reconsideration was obtained in the evening by a roll vote in which only part of the members participated. Davidson then trying to get a roll call without debate, confident that the recess would have changed enough votes to put the bill over.

Feeling between Smith and the other St. Louis Representatives ran high at times, as Smith interrogated each of those who spoke, asking "When did you change your mind about this bill?" to which each declared that there never had been any doubt in his mind, except Bittner, who affirmed that Circuit Judge Grimm had changed his mind about two weeks ago by the statement that two more judges were needed.

Controversy arose after the night session as to whether 72 votes actually had been cast for the bill.

$7 a Year Income You Can Bank on, From Each Share, With a Constant Par Cash Market for Your Shares in Case of Need, Make Union Electric Preferred Stock an Ideal Investment

Many other securities, American and foreign, promise no more than two per cent a year more than the seven per cent dividend paid on Union Electric Light & Power Company's preferred stock. Might a few of them can offer you any such certainty of regular and dependable payment of the income promised.

Five thousand St. Louis district men and women, investing their savings in shares of this stock, have voted that "seven per cent sure beats ten per cent maybe."

These shares represent ownership of the St. Louis district's basic electric light, heat and power industry. Each share is backed by more than its par value of state-appraised, state-regulated, income-producing public service property.

Union Electric preferred stock is not a speculation. It is a safe, permanent income-payer—$7 a year in cash on each $100 share, payable $1.75 every three months.

We are now selling the fourth $1,000,000 of this stock, with the state's approval, to finance growth of the business. The buyer of one share is just as welcome as the buyer of a hundred. The price is $100 a share for cash; $102 on a 10-month plan under which buyers pay $10.20 a month for ten months on each share, draw 5% interest on installment payments, and can withdraw all payments WITH INTEREST, any time before the last payment is due.

New York Woman Tells of Great Suffering and How Balmwort Brought Health

The fact is most kidney medicine made to sell to the public. Women were considered, until Balmwort met their special troubles and gave help. Men and women both agree that Balmwort is the best.

Mrs. Nettie McGinn, 609 East 18th St., New York City, writes: "For 15 years I had suffered greatly from Balmwort trouble. I was in pain in the back and hips, with frequent twinges and frequent severe bladder, accompanied by nervousness, chills and fever, with never a day of rest. I would frequently have to rise at night, my sleep being disturbed by the pressure and inflammation in the bladder. Hearing of the use of Balmwort Tablets I noticed almost instant relief and comfort. I used them until I was totally well and relieved of all pain and distress. I am now in perfect health. I am glad to recommend Balmwort Tablets to all who suffer from kidney trouble. Others may find relief and freedom from pain and distress as I did. etc. etc. etc. The foregoing letter describes in detail the distressing symptoms which are cured by Balmwort."

For Men— New Spring Clothes at New Spring Prices

CLOTHING prices for Spring, 1921, have a new standard. When anyone tells you they are selling a $50 Suit for $35 today, they are either making a misstatement or they are not selling you a new Spring Suit, because it stands to reason that new Spring clothes must bear the original selling prices—and there are no former selling prices.

And furthermore, don't let anyone tell you what clothes were "intended to sell for," because that has no meaning upon which you can base anything definite or tangible. It is a mere pretext based on nothing but imagination.

Spring clothes today are down to a new price level. You can forget all the former prices, and all former intentions. Manufacturers and retailers have adjusted themselves to the present-day conditions. Prices are much lower than they were in 1920, and still higher than in 1914—but the impression exists that they are stabilized, and men may purchase with the assurance of getting as good values as they can expect to buy.

Some manufacturers are looking for a reaction in prices and they say they will go upward. A further decrease in prices would be bad for the industry, bad for the country, bad for everybody.

When you can buy an excellent all-wool Suit in the new Spring fabrics and models, tailored by the House of Kuppenheimer, at $35.00, there is reason for feeling thoroughly well satisfied with present-day conditions.

We would like to have you come in and see these Suits and pass judgment upon them. There are better grades, too—the prices ranging upward to $75.00.

Women's Dresses

For All Occasions—Offer Rare Buying Opportunities

At $22.50

BY this time you have fully decided that the article most needed in your Spring outfit is a Frock. Now is it a tailored cloth one to wear with your choker scarf, or is it a fluffy pert taffeta one, or do the very practical, very stylish qualities of tricotette and Canton crepe make the strongest appeal?

No matter, for all of these are included in the very splendid group which we are offering for Saturday's selling.

Small as well as women of larger stature will find their size, 34 to 44 being offered. (Third Floor.)

Suits of Many Possibilities

At Moderate Prices

$37.50 $47.50

THE Suit you choose from the many models we offer at these prices will serve you for every occasion of the Spring season. If you would be frivolously feminine—add a frilly little blouse to one of these chic Suits, and you're ready for a luncheon. Would you be the tailored type—a trim tailored blouse transforms you into the most businesslike shopper.

These models are moderate in price, they are very smartly tailored, and the materials are marvels of weaving. Every style which is favored this season appears in its best form in these groups of garments. You will find the selection of your Spring Suit is merely a matter of deciding which one of them all you really prefer.

(Third Floor.)

"Foot Personality"

Is Dependent Upon the Shoes Worn

OF course, there is such a thing! If you should see the foot of a well-known friend before seeing her face, wouldn't you recognize the person before you immediately? And how about strangers—doesn't the well-shod person suggest efficiency and the poorly shod one—a quality not so desirable. Choose your Shoes at a reliable place and you will have done much towards having your feet speak well for you.

We point out this group of specially priced.

Low Shoes for Women

$8.50 Pair

ALL the styles that are most popular this Spring are included in this special group. Beachnut tan calf walking Oxfords and two-strap walking Pumps in tan calf are shown along with suede Pumps with high heels or Junior French heels, in gray, black or brown. deck as a free public highway for pedestrians and vehicles (other than those operating upon rails) and will never charge any fee or toll for such use; that said vehicle and pedestrian deck shall be maintained in a reasonably safe condition for the purposes herein stated, and free from obstructions preventing such use. The vehicle and pedestrian deck shall be maintained in the condition herein set forth at all times, except when necessary repairs are being made thereto or when the City of St. Louis is prevented from so doing by act of God, the public enemy or calamity beyond its control.

"2. Nothing contained in this compact and agreement shall be construed as divesting the City of St. Louis of its property right in and to said municipal free bridge or any part thereof, or in and to any other property now owned nor hereafter acquired by the City of St. Louis; or as limiting the right and power of the City of St. Louis to charge a fee, toll, rental or other consideration for the use of the railroad deck of said municipal free bridge and the approaches thereto; or as preventing the City of St. Louis from making reasonable rules and regulations as to the manner in which pedestrians and vehicles shall use the vehicle and pedestrian deck of said municipal free bridge, so as to promote the safety and convenience of others, and preserve said deck from unusual wear, but all such rules and regulations shall be applicable to those using said deck and shall not discriminate against the citizens of the State of Illinois or any other State; or as preventing or limiting the right of the City of St. Louis to make any street, railway tracks upon said vehicle and pedestrian deck of said municipal free bridge and providing the terms and conditions upon which said street railway tracks be used.

"3. The faithful observance of this compact and agreement each State pledges its good faith.

"4. The foregoing compact and agreement shall be in force and take effect from and after the due and proper passage of this resolution by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri and the passage of a similar law or resolution containing the foregoing compact and agreement by the Legislature of the State of Illinois and the approval of the Governor of each of said States, and procuring consent to said compact and agreement by the Congress of the United States of America."

FORMER CLUB FORMALLY DEDICATED TO MASONRY

Ceremonials at Alhambra Grotto, at Grand and Magnolia, Followed by Entertainment.

The building at Grand and Magnolia avenues, formerly known as the Lederkrantz Club, but now known as Alhambra Grotto, was formally dedicated to Masonic endeavor at ceremonials held in the building last night.

William F. Johnson, grand master of the Missouri Grand Lodge, Freemasons, came from his home in Booneville to take charge of the ceremonial. He was assisted by James W. Skelly, deputy grand master for this district; J. R. McLachlin, grand lecturer; Harold L. Reader, deputy grand master for the Fifty-seventh Masonic District; W. B. Briggs, Frank R. Jesse, Judge Anthony Ittner and others, including Kenneth G. Bellairs, monarch of Alhambra Grotto. More than 2000 Masons and members of the Eastern Star attended the ceremonials.

The private dedication services took place in the two new lodge halls recently completed in the building, there being three ceremonials altogether. An entertainment followed. The Grotto orchestra, choral club, drill team and women's auxiliary participated.

SENATE PASSES BILL FOR APPROPRIATIONS FOR SALARIES

Measure to Provide Funds Carries $1,666,000, an Increase of $345,200 Over Last Year.

Special to the Post-Dispatch: JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The Senate today passed the appropriation bill providing funds for salaries of civil officers of the State, carrying a total of $1,666,000, which is an increase of $345,200 over the appropriation for the same purpose two years ago. The measure was agreed upon last night in committee of the whole.

Senator Gray of Jasper County, Republican, said much of the salary increases were provided for by the last Legislature. The bill takes care of only a portion of the salaries. As agreed upon, it provides for the following appropriations among others: Judicial departments, $828,800, compared with $721,000 in 1919; State Department, $81,900, compared with $50,900 in 1919; Treasurer's Department, $47,200, compared with $27,600 in 1919; Auditor's Department, $34,400, compared with $28,800 in 1919; Department of Education, $53,000, compared with $50,400 in 1919; Military Department, $22,200, compared with $17,800 in 1919.

Virtually all the remainder of the session will be devoted by the Senate to consideration of appropriation bills.

4400 Gain by Immigration in Month. By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Immigrants arriving in the United States in February numbered 80,000, as against 86,000 in January, while the number leaving this country to live elsewhere was the same for both months, 28,000, figures made public by the Bureau of Immigration show. The net gain in population in February resulting from immigration was 44,000, as compared with an average net monthly gain in 1920 of 16,000.

Appointments by Pope. ROMA, March 17.—Pope Benedict has appointed as his domestic prelate Monsignor Thomas Flannery of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Monsignor James Magee of Syracuse, N. Y.; and Monsignor J. M. J. Wach of New Braunfels, Tex. John O'Neill of Newark, N. J., was made a Knight of St. Gregory the Great.

ACCORDING TO CARLYLE—

The biggest gold nugget ever found was not half as useful to the world as one good mealy potato.

Now, the mealiness which makes the potato more useful than a nugget of gold is solely a matter of proper cooking.

So, quite naturally, prospecting for deliciously mealy potatoes leads to CHILDS, the house of good cookery.

Patience served in golden French fried nuggets, in succulent fried potatoes or in the good old home fried style.

MISCELLANEOUS

JOHN KNOP, 15, of 2013 NEWHOUSE avenue, suffered concussion of the brain and scalp wounds when he was struck by a bicycle by an automobile driven by Norman E. Achlebach of 3821 North Euclid avenue at Corn and Natural Bridge avenues at 8 p. m. yesterday.

HIGHEST-PRICED LAND IN IOWA

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 15.—The decline in the price of tobacco last year had its effect on the value of Kentucky land, the Department of Agriculture reported today in announcing that the average price of plow land in the Bluegrass State in 1920 was $58 an acre, as compared with $75 an acre in 1919.
Iowa has the highest priced land, the department said, the average value of tillable land in that State last year being $200 an acre. Illinois ranked second, with her land valued at $157 an acre, while Alabama and Mississippi were near the bottom, with land values of $25 an acre. The Western states showed the least decline last year in the prices of land, and in the cases of California, Oregon and Colorado there was a slight increase.

Navy to Remate Dry.
WASHINGTON, March 15.—Secretary Denby will not rescind former Secretary Daniels' much-discussed order abolishing the wine mess on board naval vessels. The Naval Secretary said yesterday that, leaving national prohibition out of consideration, he was heartily in accord with Daniels on the subject.

U. R. WILL PUT INTEREST PAYMENT UP TO COURT

Copies of Petition to Be Filed Asking for Instructions Sent to Parties Interested.

Rolla Wells, receiver of the United Railways Co., has sent out to all parties interested in the receivership suit copies of a petition which he intends to file in the United States District Court for instructions as to whether he should pay interest due April 1 next on St. Louis & Suburban general mortgage 5 per cent bonds and St. Louis Transit Co. 5 per cent bonds. He will ask that a court hearing on the petition be held March 22.

There are outstanding $4,500,000 of the general Suburban bonds and $9,790,000 of the Transit bonds.

The petition recommends that interest on these bonds should not be paid while the Suburban consolidated 5 per cent bonds are in default, and that the earnings of the entire United Railways system should not be drawn upon to meet the mortgage obligations of component lines.

There was a default in the payment of the principal of the $2,000,000 consolidated Suburban 6s when they matured Feb. 1 last. The court on Feb. 7 authorized Receiver Wells to enter into an agreement with the bondholders by which the bonds would be extended three years at 4 per cent interest. In the petition prepared by the receiver it is said that it will be impossible for the receiver to make such an agreement and impossible to obtain funds with which to pay off the bonds and that "default in payment of the principal will necessarily continue."

Statement in Petition. After reciting the various bond issues made by United Railways Co. and its component lines, the receiver, in his petition, says:

"The order of this court appointing your receiver placed in his charge said system of railways in its then consolidated and unified condition, and directed him to operate the same. Your receiver from the time he took charge up to the present time has operated the same as one entire consolidated system. He should not use the funds secured from the operation of the system as a whole for the purpose of paying either interest on or principal of the obligations of any of the railroad companies secured on a portion of the entire system, while there is a default on either the principal of or interest on obligations of any other of the railroad companies secured on other portions of the entire system."

The petition says that because of changes in original routing it has been impossible for the receiver to keep separate accounts as to the earnings of the St. Louis & Suburban system. It asks that the court instruct the receiver as to whether he should pay the $112,500 interest on Transit Co. 6s and the $244,750 interest on the Suburban general 5s, due April 1, out of earnings of the entire system. The receiver also asks whether he shall continue to operate the United Railways lines as one system or shall allocate the expenses and receipts of the different lines. He asks instructions as to the basis on which such allocation, or separation of the receipts should be made and the specific uses to which the money should be put.

No Plan for Separation. Charles W. Bates, attorney for the receiver, today said there was no intention to suggest that the Suburban system or any other of the component lines be physically separated from the United Railways system. "We are trying our best to keep them together," he said, "but we want instructions as to whether accounts of their earnings should be kept separate and to what extent United Railways earnings as a whole should be drawn upon to pay underlying indebtedness of the component companies after one of those debts has been defaulted."

Bates said it had been impossible to form a syndicate to underwrite the plan for extending the Suburban consolidated 5s for three years.

IOWA HOUSE PASSES BILL TO GOVERN SEX CRIMES

Measure Drafted by W. C. T. U. Establishes Single Standard Under Law.

DES MOINES, Ia., March 18.—The bill to establish a single standard to govern sex crimes in Iowa passed the House yesterday, 50 to 8. It was drafted by the State W. C. T. U.

Representative Mayne of Palo Alto County, who introduced the bill, declared on the floor that he had received threats against the life of his wife and daughter, as well as his own, if the measure becomes a law. He read a letter dated Iowa City, making such a threat. The bill makes the age of consent 18 instead of 15 years, and applies penalties equally to men and women convicted. Two degrees of criminal assault are defined in the bill, the first being punishable by sentence of 20 years to life, and the second by sentence of one to five years.

The bill makes the same penalty apply to women who entice boys under 16 years of age, or boys between 16 and 18 years old, as apply to men. If the victim is under 16 the offense comes under the definition of first degree, and if between 16 and 18, second degree. The bill has yet to pass the Senate.

House Passed Negro School Bill. Special to the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The House yesterday passed a Senate bill to appropriate $500,000 to expand Lincoln Institute here to be a university for negroes. The bill was amended, however, so that the money must come from the general revenue rather than the school fund.

The food and health values of oranges are in the juice.

In buying these enticing and healthful fruits be guided by the weight.

Juice makes oranges heavy. Therefore, the heavier they are, the better.

According to Department of Agriculture investigations, orange juice contains more units of food-value than oysters, oatmeal gruel or beef juice.

Medical authorities agree that the vitamins which science has found so essential to health are supplied in liberal quantity in the juice of ripe oranges.

TRIAL FOR ALLEGED EMBEZZLEMENT DELAYS NINE CASES

Judge Landwehr's Court Has Been Occupied Since Monday With Charge Involving $2025.

TESTIMONY RUNS OVER THIRD DAY

One Jury Trial Completed in Judge Hartmann's Court Yesterday — Sentence in Another Case.

The unexpected duration of the trial of an embezzlement case in Judge Landwehr's division of the Criminal Court, a situation over which the court has no control, has operated this week to cause continuance or postponement of nine other cases.

The charge against the defendant on trial, an alleged offense against an individual corporation, not affecting the safety or security of the general public, while several of the defendants whose cases were continued were charged with robbery, larceny and other crimes of violence such as serve to terrorize the public.

The defendant in the embezzlement case is Robert A. Glassey, 4547 Cadet avenue, a former salesman for the Niesse Grover Co., who the company alleged appropriated to his own use $2025 of the firm's money. The date of the alleged offense is Jan. 20, 1920. Glassey claimed the money was due him in settlement of commissions, giving the alleged crime the aspect of merely a disputed financial transaction.

The jury brought in a verdict of acquittal this afternoon, which, in fact, served to uphold Glassey's contention that the case was simply one in which he differed with the company over the amount due him. Cases of that sort are properly tried in the civil courts, and Glassey's counsel argued that the criminal charge was dragged in as a threat to compel Glassey to pay the company what they claimed he owed.

Nine Cases Delayed.

The case was prosecuted by an attorney representing the grocery company, acting as special prosecutor. It was set for Monday and was reached on the docket during that day. Monday afternoon was spent in the selection of a jury and the taking of testimony began Tuesday morning and was continued through three full days. In an effort to dispose of the case as soon as possible, Judge Landwehr opened court at 9 o'clock each morning and kept the session until late in the afternoon.

Many disputes between counsel as to the admissibility of evidence or the propriety of questions propounded to witnesses marked the trial and served to prolong it beyond the time it was expected to consume. The docket as originally made up expected the completion of the case not later than Tuesday, and consequently other cases were set for Wednesday and yesterday. Four cases that were set for Wednesday and five set for yesterday had to be continued. In most of these cases both the State and the defendants were ready for trial.

One Jury Trial Completed.

In Judge Hartmann's division yesterday one jury trial was completed. It was the case of James Moeze, a negro, charged with murder in the second degree for the killing of his brother-in-law, Nick Plester, by stabbing. A jury found Moeze guilty and fixed his punishment at 25 years in the Penitentiary.

Judge Hartmann pronounced sentence of three years in the Penitentiary upon Faye Osborn, 28 years old, 404 Gratiot street, who on Jan. 21 pleaded guilty to grand larceny and receiving stolen property in connection with a fake holdup of a United Cigar Store at 324 North Sixth street, on Dec. 30. Max Copper-smith, 26, a clerk in the store, was charged jointly with Osborn. Copper-smith was alleged to have agreed with Osborn to leave the safe open so that Osborn could take the contents. About $260 was taken and Copper-smith reported to the police that robbers had looted the safe. The case against Copper-smith has not yet been disposed of.

Judge Hall's court was not in session yesterday.

One Jumps From Observation Balloon—Other HR by Scaplane Propeller.

ON BOARD THE U. S. S. PENNSYLVANIA, OFF GUANTANAMO, Cuba, March 18 (by wireless to the Associated Press).—Walter Jones, a chief runner's mate, was killed when he jumped from an observation balloon which broke adrift from the battleship Florida off Guantanamo yesterday, during maneuvers by the United States fleet. The body was recovered and taken aboard the hospital ship Relief.

A. R. McNeil, attached to the scaplane division of the fleet, was also killed Thursday by the propeller of a scaplane shortly after the scaplane had rescued the members of the crew of another observation balloon which broke loose from the battleship Nevada. The body has not been recovered.

pleaded not guilty. Their trial was set for Monday.

The grand jury was called to meet within 18 hours after their capture.

Can Germany Pay?

Germany must pay, say the Allied bayonets in Dusseldorf, Duisburg, and Ruhrort; Germany must pay, said Premier Lloyd George, speaking for the Allies at the London Reparations Conference; Germany must pay, agree the newspaper editors in this country as well as in France and England. But can Germany pay? Is Germany ready to make an honest effort to pay? Most editorial observers comment on the lack of accurate post-war statistics on German trade and finance. Every careful newspaper reader has been puzzled by the contradictory stories coming from Germany. One investigator reports marvelous industrial recovery, and another, apparently equally reliable, describes Germany as a land of hunger and poverty and complete industrial collapse. The view of the Kansas City Times is that "Germany is a dishonest bankrupt hiding her assets and dodging her obligations while pretending to hand over her all." Germany, says the London Economist, "has been letting her state finances fall into disorder with a view to showing an economic weakness. Her state services have been run at a loss, and she has used the printing-press with a freedom that has aroused the admiring envy of British inflationists. But her industry is in much better shape than her state finances, and on her industry her power to pay is ultimately based."

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, March 19th, deals with all phases of the Reparations problem, and presents the views of European and American editors. The article is illustrated by a map showing the cities and other territory in Germany now occupied by the Allied armies.

Perfect Figures are not Formed but Re-Formed

Many a woman despairs of herself because Nature formed her too generously or too sparingly here and there. The Redfern Corset takes such figures and re-forms them into lines of fashion. A smart and youthful silhouette is thus achieved, and styles can be worn which otherwise would be unbecoming.

No mechanical or patented devices of any kind are used to accomplish this. It is simply a higher development of correct corset designing. Every type of figure can be effectively re-formed by the application of some one of the many Redfern models.

A Redfern brings not only greater beauty, but ease and comfort as well. And Redfern quality is such that the cloth and the boning preserve the original lines of the corset as long as it is worn. Visit the Redfern corsetiere in your city and see how easily your figure can be re-formed and rejuvenated.

HAIR TONICS USED AS BEVERAGE IN KANSAS

Federal Prohibition Enforcement Agents Encounter New Problems as Thirsty Turn to Patent Medicines.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 18.—Kansas has been fighting with prohibition for nearly 10 years, but the State has not waited until national prohibition came into operation to learn all the tricks of the trade. Now Kansas has started a little war on the hair tonic drunks. During the days when Kansas was fighting the liquor traffic alone and most of the country was laughing about it the men who simply had to have a "morning tonic" every day in the year were always able to get the liquor they craved.

With the coming of national prohibition there has come into operation a gang of ruthless bootleggers who peddle liquor containing wood alcohol and other poisons. There have been so many deaths from wood alcohol poisoning that most of the Kansas drinkers are "off" the liquor business for good, unless they happen to have a stock on hand that they know is absolutely safe.

Much Alcohol Used. But those who still demand a drink with more or less regularity have turned to hair tonics and the cheap patent medicines and they are guzzling these things in great quantities. Dudley Doolittle, Federal prohibition enforcement officer for Kansas, has recently received a report from the internal revenue office showing that 10 times as much raw alcohol is being withdrawn for use in hair tonics and patent medicines as previous to the enactment of the Volstead act following the adoption of constitutional prohibition in October, 1919. 400,000 gallons of alcohol were withdrawn for the use of manufacturers of hair tonics and patent medicines. In the same month of 1920, only 40,000 gallons were withdrawn for the same purpose. When prohibition was too strenuously enforced in parts of Kansas years ago Jamaica ginger was brought into operation as the producer of a gag. At times some biters and patent medicines known to contain high percentages of alcohol were used. Then the State got after the drug stores which sold the ginger for beverage purposes and after a few convictions the legitimate drug stores quit the sale of the ginger quenchers. If there was a suspicion that it might be used for a beverage.

Druggists Warned. The Federal prohibition officers and the State law enforcement officers are now conducting a campaign among the druggists warning them of the probable consequences of the sale of hair tonics and patent medicines for beverage purposes. The hair tonics can be "doped" to make them unfit for beverages. This has been done to all perfumes, as there had been a strong demand for perfumes for drinking purposes until the Government required the addition of poisons. It is impossible to use poisons in patent medicines intended for internal use, so the druggists must watch their step in the sale of any considerable quantities of these medicines or the regular sale of the medicines to the same person. The burden of proof that the medicine was not to be used for beverage purposes is on the druggist if he is arrested.

A good many Kansans who early saw the coming of prohibition have become addicted to the "silo juice" as a beverage. This is the fluid which collects in the bottom of a silo after the green feeds have fermented for some weeks. Silo juice has all the "kick" the most hopeful seeker for strong drink could ask for. It produces a violent form of intoxication and the hangover is as continuous and the headache just as vicious as the champagne drinks of the good old days.

Former Synodical College Students Give Occupations. Former students of Synodical College, Fulton, Mo., a Southern Presbyterian Church institution for women, have given their present occupations in response to a questionnaire by the college president, John James, who is preparing material for use in a campaign to endow the college and other of the church educational institutions with $500,000.

About 175 of the questionnaires were returned by the former students who now reside in 21 states and the District of Columbia, and in several foreign countries. The latter consists of 22 young women who have gone from the college as foreign missionaries.

Seventy-three of the number are in the teaching profession, several of whom are principals and superintendents of schools. One is principal of the Minnesota School for the Deaf, and another occupies a like position in Michigan. One is the wife of the president of one of the largest young women's finishing schools in the South. Fifty-two are housewives, though this number includes some who are teaching.

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and laggard. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

FARMERS CONSIDERING BIG MARKETING PLANS

Most Extensive Co-Operative Systems in History of Country Are Being Worked Out.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 17.—Farmers' organizations of the United States today are officially considering the most extensive co-operative marketing plans in the history of the country.

Two well developed projects for handling grain already have been worked out, and are now being presented to farmers. If adopted, they will go into effect this summer. Efforts are being made to unite the two farm groups concerned on a single system.

The final ratification meeting for the broader of the plans, which includes the handling of all grain, is set for April 6 here. The other organization, which concerns itself only with wheat, is already signing up members.

On April 7 the first working meeting of a national livestock marketing committee will be held here. Its object is to develop a national livestock marketing plan.

Fruit Growers to Convene.
Coincidentally with these two meetings, fruit growers of the country will hold a conference in Chicago, at which consideration will be given the possibility of national co-operative effort.

The national plans for marketing of wheat and livestock are the culmination of much local and sectional co-operative enterprise already established by farmers.

The prime movers in the plans mentioned are the American Farm Bureau Federation and the Wheat Growers' Association of America. Both organizations are developments of the last few years.

The "wheat strike" of last year first attracted attention to the Wheat Growers' Association, which has its headquarters at Wichita, Kan. With the assistance of Aaron Sapiro, a California marketing expert, it has worked out a system and is pushing a contract campaign in the wheat raising States. In Kansas an effort is being made to sign up 50,000,000 bushels, or about half the crop, in a wheat pool.

The general grain and livestock marketing plans are those in which the American Farm Bureau Federation has taken the lead. The federation was permanently organized only a year ago, on the foundation of the county farm bureaus, already long established.

Grain Marketing Plan.
The grain marketing plan, which has the federation's support and is to be presented to farmers in the various states between now and April 6, is the outcome of a months' work. It was drawn up by farmers and other experts under a committee of 17, with C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln, Neb., chairman. As head of a big co-operative marketing plan, Gustafson has already made a success in this field.

The livestock committee appointed by the American Farm Bureau Federation to devise a national livestock marketing plan starts with the same aim as the federation's grain committee, but as it was created later, it is just getting into its labors at the present time. This is called the "Committee of 15."

National Sales Agency.
While the two grain plans differ in detail and elasticity, each calls for a national sales agency. Whether the livestock committee will similarly advise a national livestock commission sales company is one of the questions before it. Mr. Gustafson is also chairman of this committee, and H. W. Mumford of the Illinois Agricultural Association is secretary. Dr. Mumford reports there are 5000 co-operative livestock shipping associations and half a dozen co-operative livestock commission companies in the country.

Co-operative business being transacted at the present time by farmers runs into the hundreds of millions of dollars, according to figures collected here. The capital which farmers have invested in co-operative grain elevators totals over millions. The national organizing movement has also touched the hundreds of farmer-owned co-operative elevators, and they recently got together here in a national convention.

Co-operative purchasing of supplies by farmers' organizations, prominent among them the elevators, has made rapid progress in several states, farmers owning coal mines and buying output of entire factories. Legislation to facilitate co-operative enterprise has been advanced in a number of legislatures this winter.

GALVESTON WILL HAVE "BEACH REVIEW" MAY 15

Surf Bathing Season Will Open With "Splash Day" April 17.

GALVESTON, Tex., March 18.—Many cities have been invited by the Galveston Beach Association to enter contestants in the Bathing Girl Review here on May 15. The review will be modeled after those of famous European watering resorts and the California beaches. Prizes in all classes total $2500.

Beach costumes as well as swimming suits "made to get wet" will have their place in the show, according to plans announced by the association, and the girl who possesses skill with the needle will enjoy equal opportunity with those of her sisters who purchase ultra fashionable designs. "Splash day" will open the bathing season at the beaches here, April 17.

Woman, 80, Killed by Train.
BENTON, Ill., March 18.—Mrs. Margaret Rea, 80 years old, was killed yesterday by an Illinois Central passenger train while walking on the track near Christopher.

$32,000 Shortage in Subtreasury.

By the Associated Press.
BALTIMORE, Md., March 18.—A $32,000 shortage has been discovered in the funds of the Baltimore Subtreasury. The shortage was found by United States Treasury officials at the subtreasury in checking up $20,000,000 turned over to them after a previous check by employees of the institution had shown the amount in the vaults to be correct.

The movies as a career for girls— is it dangerous?

WHAT of the perils and temptations supposed to be inevitable to life in the movies? Can a girl get ahead and still retain her innocence and refinement?

Does it offer the glittering opportunities that we are led to believe? Are the salaries really so fabulous?

How does one go about it to get a start? What part does pull play?

These are questions which thousands of ambitious girls and thousands of anxious mothers have asked Pictorial Review to answer.

In Pictorial Review for April, Benjamin B. Hampton, one of the pioneers of the moving-picture industry, gives detailed information on all these points.

Would you like to learn how to get into the movies? Then read

"Do you want to get into the movies?"
by Benjamin B. Hampton, in Pictorial Review for April

Do you know the meaning of your dreams?

SINCE the beginning of time, mankind has striven to find out the meaning of dreams.

And now—not magic but science has furnished the clue.

Do you ever dream that you are flying?—or falling?—or that you are in some public place without your proper clothing?—or that you are endlessly trying to pack a trunk or do some other necessary and important thing?

Nearly everyone has had these dreams and wondered what they meant. Find out all about your dreams by reading

"Your dreams and your soul"

Ty Cobb Will Have No Sinecure
In His Attempt to Pilot the Tigers Out of Second Division

With Tyus Starring, Outfield Will Be Detroit's Strongest Department This Year—Club Has 14 Pitchers, Merit Doubtful, With Two Right and Two Left Hand First-String Men.

NO. 3—THE DETROIT TIGERS.

THE Detroit Tigers, in previous seasons, always one of the most interesting clubs in the major league, will be watched closely by all followers of the national pastime during the coming campaign.

When the Tigers face the White Sox, April 13, the Georgia Peach will be making his official debut as a manager. Cobb has been a great player, generally regarded as the best in the game. He has been known to lose his temper very quickly, and it remains to be seen whether he will be able to manage a ball club, as well as himself.

During 1920 the Tigers came home in seventh place, after a disastrous start, losing the first 13 games of the campaign. Poor pitching was the main reason. Tyus has not predicted any pennants for the club, but hopes to do at least as well with the talent he owns as Hugh Jennings did his final year in the American League.

Cobb has several novel ideas of his own which he will try out in the American League. Always rated as a smart player—one able to do the unexpected and upset the opposition at all times—it will be interesting to note whether he is able to impart any of this knowledge to his players.

Taking the position as manager of the Detroit club is no "joy ride" for any man. The aggregation needs a lot of building up. In brief, the four departments of the Tigers can be summed up as follows:

PITCHING—Uncertain. CATCHING—Fairly good, with one veteran and three youngsters, two of them holdovers from 1920. INFIELD—None too strong. OUTFIELD—Strongest point of the team.

The 1921 Tigers

PITCHERS—Daus, Ehman, Leonard, Oldham, Holand, Ayers, Cole, Cunningham, Conkwright, Holling, Middleton, Sutherland, Stewart and Bogart.

CATCHERS—Almsmith, Bassler, Woodall and Manion.

INFIELDERS—Hallmann, Young, Bush, Jones, Blue, Hale, Sargent and Huber.

OUTFIELDERS—Cobb, Veach, Shorten, Flagstead and Fothergill.

The Tigers' new chauffeur has 14 hurlers at the training camp at San Antonio, Tex., and from this list he expects to develop a dependable staff. The best of his veterans are Daus, Ehman, Leonard and Oldham. This gives the club two right-handers and two southpaws to start with. Bernie Holand and Doc Ayers also are vets, but neither started the world in 1920.

Cunningham a Good Prospect. Among the newcomers George Cunningham, who was with the Junglers several seasons and lost to the Southern last year, is looked upon as the brightest prospect. Cunningham's chief trouble when up before was lack of control. Sutherland from the Coast League, who is said to be fling on the order of Jim Bagby, is another likely looking bit of material. Others striving for places are Cole, Holling, Conkwright, Middleton, Stewart and Bogart.

Eddie Almsmith is again figured upon to do the bulk of the catching, although Johnny Bassler, who at one time was with Cleveland, and who was obtained from the Coast League, may force the former Senator to play second fiddle. The others are Woodall and Manion, likely looking athletes, who were with the club in 1920.

As to Cobb's infield, he will have to plug that hole at third base, the weak spot of the outfit last season. Bobby Jones, under a new boss, may show more "pep" and come through with a major league performance. Huber and Hale are his chief rivals.

Bill Legalizing Boxing Bouts Now Goes to Governor

Missouri Executive Will Sign Measure Permitting Contests, Jeff City Hears.

JEFFERSON CITY, March 18.—The Legion boxing bill, legalizing 10-round pugilistic exhibitions in Missouri, was passed by the Senate last night, 20 Senators approving it and five voting in the negative.

As the bill had previously passed the House, it now lacks only the signature of Gov. Hyde to make it a law, and it was reported in the Capitol last night that gubernatorial approval would be given.

The bill creates a "Missouri Athletic Commission" composed of three members, two of whom are selected by the Governor. The third will be Richard W. Raub, Adjutant-General, who will be chairman of the board.

Athletic organizations or social clubs may obtain licenses to give boxing exhibitions by making application to the commission. The following schedule of license fees is fixed by the bill: One over $500 and under $1,000, $25; over $1,000 and under $5,000, $50; over $5,000 and not more than $10,000, $100; and over $10,000 a fee of $200 will be charged.

Five per cent of the gross receipts of boxing contests will be charged by the State for the maintenance of the commission, and clubs, where fights are staged must give a complete report of gross receipts and net earnings to the commission within 24 hours after each fight.

Boxing decisions optional with the commission. When one fighter demonstrates his superiority over an amateur match, and is apparently to the referee, he is compelled by law to stop the fight.

Referees must obtain licenses before they can officiate. The tax is $10. Boys under 15 years of age are not permitted to participate in amateur matches, and professional boxers must be at least 18 years old.

"Peep" Young are regarded as certainties at short and second, but there is a fight on for the initial station job. The hunt are Harry Hellmann, the 1920 regular, and Lew Blue from the Coast League. If Blue comes through, Hellmann, a 400 hitter, will be shifted to the meadows.

If Blue falls, Hellmann will retain his job.

In the outfield, two positions are clinched, with Cobb himself holding down center and Bobby Veach left. Three, and if Hellmann is shifted to the meadows, four are fighting for the other post. Besides Hellmann the athletes are Flagstead, Shorten and Fothergill, a recruit.

No one where the Tigers finish, chief interest in the team will be centered around Ty Cobb and his success as a major league manager.

Brown Beats Sullivan. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 18.—Flooring his opponent in the first round and forcing him to quit in the sixth, K. O. Brown easily defeated Spike Sullivan of Cleveland in a scheduled 10-round bout here last night. Brown had more power in his right hook and also a terrific left, which closed both of the Clevelanders' eyes. Sullivan took loads of punishment before quitting.

Brown, who beat Frankie Mason here Feb. 16, will oppose the Port Wayne veteran April 18.

Illinois Swimmers Set Mark. CHICAGO, March 18.—The University of Illinois, Minnesota, Northwestern and Chicago qualified last night for the final in the 150-yard relay swim at the Western Conference swimming meet held at Northwestern University. Illinois finished first, breaking the conference record, but as there was but one timer, the record will not stand as official. The Illinois men made the distance in 1m. 20.1-ss, the best previous mark being 1m. 21.2-ss.

Reuben Defeats Rezedaki. CHICAGO, March 18.—Ben Reuben of Chicago defeated Steve Rezedaki, also of Chicago, in straight falls in their wrestling match here last night. Jack Reynolds of Cedar Rapids, Ia., threw Ed Danks of Grand Rapids, Mich., in 18 minutes 30 seconds with a toe-hold. Danks conceded the second fall because of an injured ankle. Chris Jordan of Cleveland won in straight falls from Charles Chaverlat of Chicago.

Oregon to Play Hawaiians. EUGENE, Ore., March 18.—The University of Oregon football team will journey to the Hawaiian Islands for two games this year, provided the return trip can be finished before Jan. 15, 1922. It was announced today by the graduate manager of sports. The games would be played with the University of Hawaii and the canoe outrigger club of Honolulu.

Levinaky Meets Weinert. Battling Levinaky and Charley Weinert of Newark, N. J., meet in a 15-round bout at New York tonight. Bob Roper of Chicago and Homer Smith of Kalamazoo, Mich., are principals in another 15-round match.

Frank Frisch Injured. Frank Frisch, the New York Nationals' star infielder, wrenched his left ankle in a training game at San Antonio yesterday and may not be able to appear with the team until the season opens.

Zhyzko Defeats Vargo. CLEVELAND, O., March 18.—Stanislav Zhyzko, heavyweight wrestler, drew Joe Vargo of Cleveland last night in 40 minutes and 30 seconds with a toe hold. Vargo was unable to resume after the first fall.

Nationals Trounce Phillies. GAINESVILLE, Fla., March 18.—Philadelphia Nationals, 13-6; Washington Americans, 11-15-2. Batteries: Ring, Keenan, Causey and Peters; Ring, Schacht, Brower and Pielich.

MISSOURI TRACK STARS MEET KANSAS TONIGHT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 18.—Tonight will see the best men of Missouri and Kansas Universities racing, jumping and putting the shot for supremacy at the eighteenth annual indoor dual track and field meet of the two schools in Convention Hall here.

Predictions emanating from Kansas University say their hopes for victory are pinned on the distance and field events. Practically the same team as that which competed in the recent Kansas City Athletic Club carnival here and which humbled the Kansas Aggies at Lawrence will represent the Kansas institution. The same is true of Missouri, with regard to the team. Coach Bob Simpson, former world champion hurdler, predicts a clean-cut victory for his men tonight.

In the seventeen times the rival schools have clashed, Kansas has won only one meet. This was in 1913, and by a margin of one point. If they do not win tonight, Kansas enthusiasts say, the score will be a mighty close one.

WHITE SUES BOXING BODY FOR $50,000

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 18.—Charley White, Chicago boxer, yesterday filed suit in Federal Court against the Wisconsin Boxing Commission, suing for $50,000 and alleging the loss of contracts through the action of the commission in suspending him. White was suspended following his bout with Sallor Friedman at Kenosha several weeks ago, for what the commission regarded as "stalling."

Lewis Throws Kennedy. FORT WORTH, Texas, March 18.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, heavyweight wrestling champion, defeated Dan Kennedy of Montreal, in straight falls in a wrestling match here last night. Lewis won the first fall in 33 minutes with a head lock and the second in 40 minutes with a hammerlock.

Los Angeles Beats Cuba. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 18.—Chicago Nationals, 2-6-1; Vernon Pacific Coast League, 7-9-2. Batteries: Weaver, Jones and Gomez; Love, Shellenbach and Hannah.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING!—By BRIGGS

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

We're always placed reliance,
Since childhood's earliest day,
Upon the men of science
And what they had to say.
This faith remains unshaken
When now we read the news
That oysters must be taken With booze.

The booze is necessary,
The scientists affirm,
Because the oysters carry
A swarm of typhoid germs,
Which take a deadly toll
Whenever we apply
A mixture alcoholic—
And die.

With oysters it is risky,
One's innards to regale,
Except along with whisky
Or beer or wine or ale.
But this need not alarm us,
They still can serve as food,
For they are wholly harmless—
When stewed.

Yet lately we've been thinking
That it is indiscreet,
Without a lot of drinking
These oysters to eat—
If alcoholic stewing
Destroys the bacillus,
Just what it must be doing—
To us!

"Well, didn't you ever see a man put on a patch before?"

Fooling the Judge.

The jurymen ran breathlessly into the courtroom.
"Oh, your honor," he exclaimed, "if you can excuse me, please, please do! I don't know which will die first—my wife or my daughter."
"Dear me, that's sad," said the Judge. "Certainly you are excused."
The next day the jurymen was met by one of his fellow jurors, who, in a sympathetic voice, asked: "How's your wife?"
"She's all right. Why do you ask?"
"And your daughter?"
"She's all right, too. Why do you ask?"
"Why, yesterday you told the Judge that you did not know which would die first."
"Nor do I. That is a problem that time alone can solve."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Sweet Confusion Followed.

Sentimental Young Lady: Oh, professor, what would this old oak say if it could speak?
Professor: It would say, "I am an elm."—Detroit News.

Ain't It the Truth?

"The benefits of prohibition," said Edward Bob, the famous editor, at a Y. M. C. A. lecture in Philadelphia, "are countless. And not the least of these benefits is the abolition of a certain class of pessimists—that is the heavy drinker, who, getting up stale every morning from too much booze the night before, inevitably finds life a burden. Many men are like John Horrocks. "Wishing to administer a gentle reproof to Horrocks one day, I said: "Did you ever hear the saying, John, that a man who never drinks, nor smokes, nor stays up late at night, always lives to a great age?" "Yes," replied John with a yawn, "that's his punishment."—Los Angeles Times.

Sad Disappointment.

"So you consider Jack misleading and disappointing. Why, dear?"
"Well, he had me on the tent-hooks last night in expectation that he was going to ask me to go to the theater."
"And didn't he?"
"No, he only asked me to marry him."—Boston Transcript.

Aunt Eppie Hogg, the Fattest Woman in Three Counties—By Fontaine Fox.

Acute Isolation.

"The ancient mariner knew what solitude was."
"Even at that he probably wasn't any lonelier than the prominent Republican statesman who hasn't been mentioned for a place in the Cabinet."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

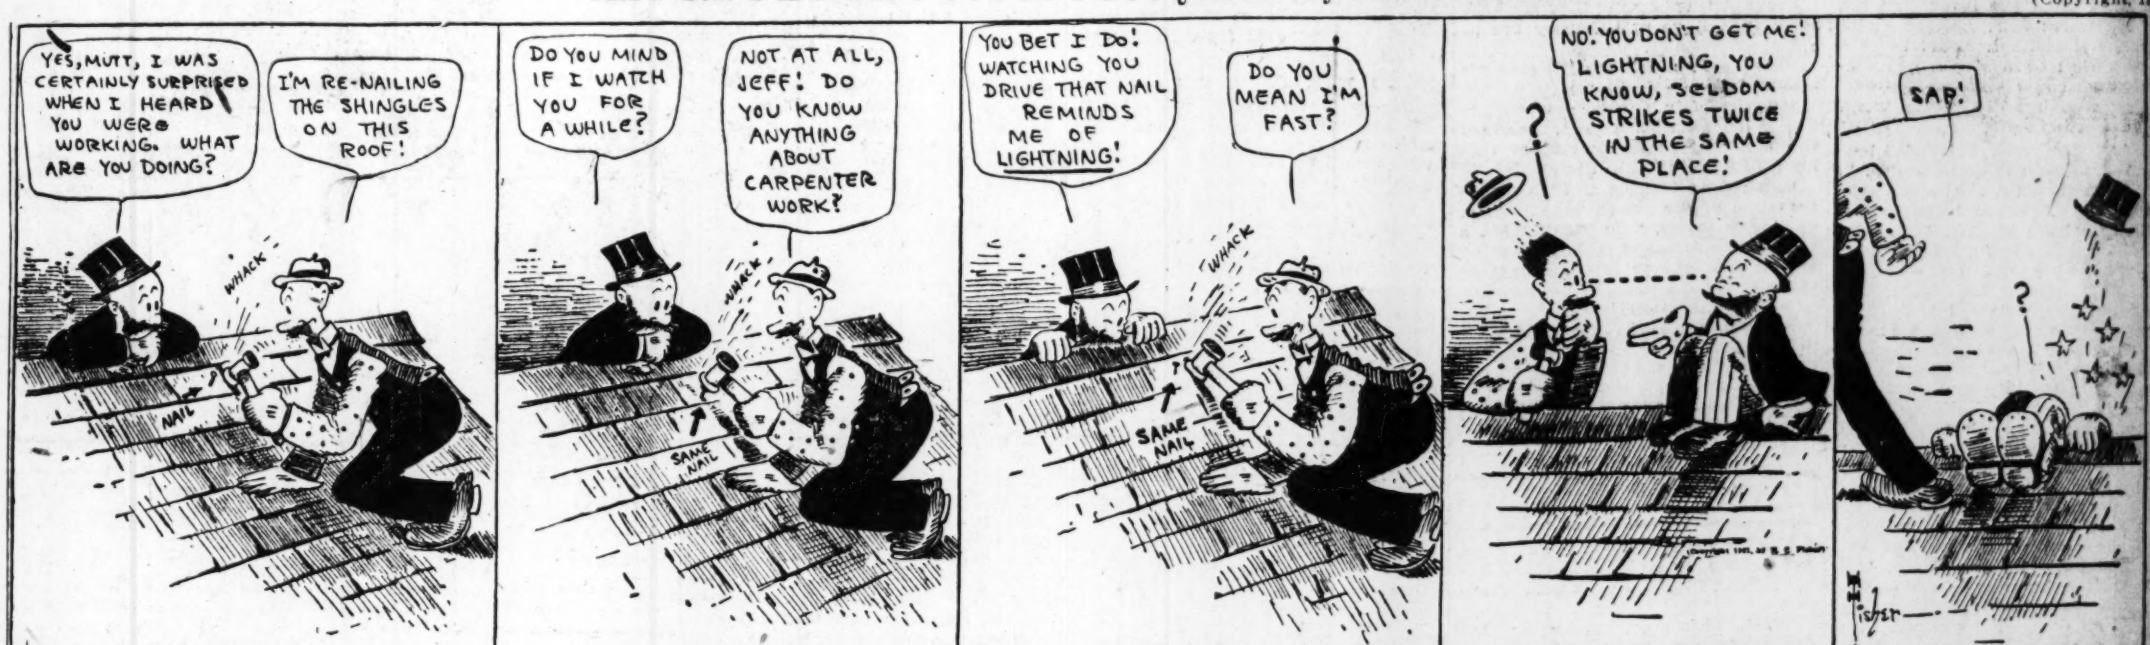

Calling It Square.

M. D.—I said $10 a day ago to eliminate the knocking in my machine; now it's just as bad as ever.
Mechanic—Doctor, I may say the same of my rheumatism, which you treated. So we might call it square.

Toilet Accessory.

The Guest—I want a room with a bath.
The Landlord of the Tallimore Hotel—Ain't got it. No call for baths in these parts. But you'll find the door frame in room 13 makes a good scratchin' post.—Houston Post.
